Senator Peaden moved the following amendment:

Senate Amendment (with title amendment)

On page 12, lines 3-17, delete those lines and insert:

(5) NUMBER OF SCHOOLS.--

(a) The number of newly created charter schools is limited to no more than 28 in each school district that has 100,000 or more students, no more than 20 in each school district that has 50,000 to 99,999 students, and no more than 12 in each school district with fewer than 50,000 students.

(b) An existing public school which converts to a charter school shall not be counted towards the limit established by paragraph (a).

Notwithstanding any limit established by this subsection, a district school board or a charter school applicant shall have the right to request an increase of the limit on the number of charter schools authorized to be established within the district from the State Board of Education.
