The Committee on Governmental Oversight and Productivity recommended the following amendment:

Senate Amendment

On page 50, after line 31,

insert:

(9) If a civil action is brought against any member of a university board of regents for any act or omission arising out of and in the course of the performance of his or her duties and responsibilities, the university board of regents may defray all costs of defending such action, including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses, together with costs of appeal, and may save harmless and protect such person from any financial loss resulting from the lawful performance of his or her duties and responsibilities. A claim based on any such action or omission may, in the discretion of the university board of regents, be settled prior to or after the filing of suit. The board of regents may arrange for and pay the premium for appropriate insurance to cover all such losses and expenses.
