and insert:

(c) Division of State Colleges and Universities.--The state's public universities and 4-year colleges to coordinate long-range statewide planning. The division shall be primarily responsible for articulating statewide needs to and from the state's public colleges and universities and the Commissioner of Education to avoid wasteful duplication of academic programs. To this end, the Chancellor, in consultation with the Commissioner of Education, shall determine a method by which to receive proposed university rules for the purposes of providing recommendations toward coordinated university efforts. The division shall also seek to enable more effective articulation between public postsecondary institutions and those private colleges and universities that grant baccalaureate degrees, are located in and chartered by the state, and are accredited by the Commission of Colleges of the
