I. SUMMARY:

This bill creates the "Child Safety Booster Seat Act of 2001" which revises the requirements for child restraint devices in motor vehicles. The bill would require that children 8 years of age or younger, who weigh less than 80 pounds and are less than 4 feet 9 inches in height be provided the protection of a crash-tested, federally approved child restraint device. For children 3 years of age or younger and children aged 4 through 8 years who weigh 40 pounds or less the restraint device must be a separate carrier or a vehicle manufacturer's integrated child seat. For children aged 4 through 8 years who weigh more than 40 pounds but less than 80 pounds and who are less than 4 feet 9 inches in height, a separate carrier, an integrated child seat or a child booster seat must be used.

Law enforcement officers will issue warnings for violations of the bill and give educational literature from July 1, 2001, until January 1, 2002. After the warning period, moving traffic violations may be issued to drivers. The court must dismiss first violations if the driver provides proof of purchase of an approved child restraint device.

The bill has an effective date of July 1, 2001.

For any principle that received a "no" above, please explain:

Less Government: This bill revises child restraint requirements for children passengers in motor vehicles. Motor vehicle operators will be required to use child restraint devices for certain children up to 8 years of age instead of the current 5 years of age.

B. PRESENT SITUATION:

Currently, s. 316.613, F.S., requires every motor vehicle operator to properly use a crash-tested, federally approved child restraint device when transporting a child 5 years of age or younger. For children 3 years of age or younger, such restraint device must be a separate carrier or a vehicle manufacturer's integrated child seat. For children aged 4 through 5 years, a separate carrier, an integrated child seat or a seat belt may be used. A driver who violates this requirement is subject to a $60 fine, court costs and add-ons, and having 3 points assessed against their driver's license.

A driver who violates this requirement may elect, with the court's approval, to participate in a child restraint safety program. Upon completing such program the above penalties may be waived at the court's discretion and the assessment of points waived. The child restraint safety program must use a course approved by the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles, and the fee for the course must bear a reasonable relationship to the cost of providing the course.

C. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

Section 1: The bill creates the "Child Safety Booster Seat Act of 2001."

Section 2: This bill amends s. 316.613, F.S., revising the requirements for child restraint devices in motor vehicles. The bill would require that children 8 years of age or younger, who weigh less than 80 pounds and are less than 4 feet 9 inches in height be provided the protection of a crash-tested, federally approved child restraint device. For children 3 years of age or younger and for children aged 4 through 8 years who weigh 40 pounds or less the restraint device must be a separate carrier or a vehicle manufacturer's integrated child seat. For children aged 4 through 8 years who weigh more than 40 pounds but less than 80 pounds and who are less than 4 feet 9 inches in height, a separate carrier, an integrated child seat or a child booster seat must be used. Seat belts alone would no longer be legal restraints for children not meeting the age, weight or height requirements of the bill.

The bill provides that law enforcement officers may only issue verbal warnings and educational literature between July 1, 2001 and December 31, 2001. After January 1, 2002, drivers of a motor vehicle who violate the child restraint requirement of the bill would be issued a moving traffic violation. Courts are required to dismiss the charge against a driver for a first violation of this paragraph upon proof of purchase of a federally approved child restraint device.

Section 3: This bill takes effect July 1, 2001.

D. SECTION-BY-SECTION ANALYSIS:

See Effect of Proposed Changes.

III. FISCAL ANALYSIS & ECONOMIC IMPACT STATEMENT:

- A. FISCAL IMPACT ON STATE GOVERNMENT:
 - 1. Revenues:

None.

2. Expenditures:

None.

- B. FISCAL IMPACT ON LOCAL GOVERNMENTS:
 - Revenues:

None.

2. Expenditures:

None.

C. DIRECT ECONOMIC IMPACT ON PRIVATE SECTOR:

Drivers of vehicles must use a separate carrier, an integrated child seat or a child booster seat to transport children required by the bill to be restrained. Seat belts alone would no longer be legal restraints for children not meeting the age, weight or height criteria in the bill. This will have a fiscal impact to vehicle operators for the cost of acquiring the necessary restraint devices. Because the number of additional children who will need restraint devices other than seat belts is unknown the amount of this impact cannot be determined.

D. FISCAL COMMENTS:

None.

IV. CONSEQUENCES OF ARTICLE VII, SECTION 18 OF THE FLORIDA CONSTITUTION:

A. APPLICABILITY OF THE MANDATES PROVISION:

The bill does not require a city or county to spend funds or to take any action requiring the expenditure of any funds.

Provided that law enforcement officers may only issue verbal warnings and educational literature between July 1, 2001 and December 31, 2001. After January 1, 2002 drivers of a motor vehicle who violate the child restraint requirement of the bill would be issued a moving traffic violation.
