2001 Legislature

(2) For the purposes of this section, the term 1 2 "employee" means any person, whether appointed, elected, or 3 under contract, providing services for the state; any state 4 agency or county or other political subdivision of the state; 5 or any municipality; or any constitutional county officer under s. 1(d), Article VIII of the State Constitution for б 7 which compensation or statutory fees are paid. 8 (3) In accordance with a plan of deferred compensation 9 which has been approved as herein provided, the state or any 10 state agency, county, municipality, or other political subdivision, or constitutional county officer may, by contract 11 12 or a collective bargaining agreement, agree with any employee 13 to defer all or any portion of that employee's otherwise 14 payable compensation and, pursuant to the terms of such 15 approved plan and in such proportions as may be designated or directed under that plan, place such deferred compensation in 16 17 savings accounts or use the same to purchase fixed or variable 18 life insurance or annuity contracts, securities, evidence of 19 indebtedness, or such other investment products as may have been approved for the purposes of carrying out the objectives 20 of such plan. Such insurance, annuity, savings, or investment 21 22 products shall be underwritten and offered in compliance with 23 the applicable federal and state laws and regulations by persons who are duly authorized by applicable state and 24 25 federal authorities.

(4)(a) The Treasurer, with the approval of the State Board of Administration, shall establish such plan or plans of deferred compensation for state employees, including all such investment vehicles or products incident thereto, as may be available through, or offered by, qualified companies or persons, and may approve one or more such plans for implementation by and on behalf of the state and its agencies and employees.

(b) If the Treasurer deems it advisable, he or she shall have the power, with the approval of the State Board of Administration, to create a trust or other special funds for the segregation of funds or assets resulting from compensation deferred at the request of employees of the state or its agencies and for the administration of such program.

9 (c) The Treasurer, with the approval of the State Board of Administration, may delegate responsibility for 10 administration of the plan to a person the Treasurer 11 12 determines to be qualified, compensate such person, and, 13 directly or through such person or pursuant to a collective 14 bargaining agreement, contract with a private corporation or 15 institution to provide such services as may be part of any 16 such plan or as may be deemed necessary or proper by the 17 Treasurer or such person, including, but not limited to, providing consolidated billing, individual and collective 18 19 recordkeeping and accountings, asset purchase, control, and safekeeping, and direct disbursement of funds to employees or 20 other beneficiaries. The Treasurer may authorize a person, 21 private corporation, or institution to make direct 22 23 disbursement of funds under the plan to an employee or other beneficiary only upon the order of the Comptroller to the 24 25 Treasurer.

(d) In accordance with such approved plan, and upon contract or agreement with an eligible employee, deferrals of compensation may be accomplished by payroll deductions made by the appropriate officer or officers of the state, with such funds being thereafter held and administered in accordance with the plan.

2001 Legislature

(5) Any county, municipality, or other political 1 2 subdivision of the state may by ordinance, and any 3 constitutional county officer under s. 1(d), Article VIII of the State Constitution of 1968 may by contract agreement or 4 5 other documentation constituting approval, adopt and establish 6 for itself and its employees a deferred compensation program. 7 The ordinance shall designate an appropriate official of the 8 county, municipality, or political subdivision to approve and 9 administer a deferred compensation plan or otherwise provide for such approval and administration. The ordinance shall 10 also designate a public official or body to make the 11 12 determinations provided for in paragraph (6)(b). If a 13 constitutional county officer elects to adopt and establish 14 for that office and its employees a deferred compensation program, the constitutional county officer shall be the 15 appropriate official to make the determinations provided for 16 17 in this subsection and in paragraph (6)(b). 18 (6)(a) No deferred compensation plan of the state 19 shall become effective until approved by the State Board of Administration and the Treasurer is satisfied by opinion from 20 such federal agency or agencies as may be deemed necessary 21 that the compensation deferred thereunder and/or the 22 23 investment products purchased pursuant to the plan will not be included in the employee's taxable income under federal or 24 state law until it is actually received by such employee under 25 26 the terms of the plan, and that such compensation will 27 nonetheless be deemed compensation at the time of deferral for the purposes of social security coverage, for the purposes of 28 29 the state retirement system, and for any other retirement, pension, or benefit program established by law. 30 31 4
