17	Section 2. Section 240.2099, Florida Statutes, is
18	amended to read:
19	240.2099 Computer-assisted student advising system;
20	plansThe Board of Regents and State Board of Community
21	Colleges shall develop plans for implementing a single,
22	statewide computer-assisted student advising system, which
23	must be an integral part of the process of advising,
24	registering, and certifying students for graduation. Plans
25	shall include timelines for the implementation of the system and shall be submitted to the Legislature by October 1, 1996.
26 27	It is intended that an advising system be the primary advising
28	and tracking tool for students enrolled in community colleges
29	and universities and be accessible to students enrolled in
30	each of the state universities, community colleges, and public
31	secondary schools. The State University System and the community college system shall establish a committee to oversee the development and maintenance of the advising system. The system shall consist of a degree audit and an articulation component that includes the following characteristics provided in subsections (1), (2), and (3):

- (1) The system shall constitute an integral part of the process of advising students and assisting them in course selection. The system shall be accessible to students in the following ways:
- (a) A student must be able to access the system, at any time, to identify course options that will meet the requirements of a selected path toward a degree.
- (b) A status report from the system shall be generated and sent with each grade report to each student with a declared major.
- (2) The system shall be an integral part of the registration process. As part of the process, the system shall:
- (a) Provide reports that document each student's status toward completion of a degree.
- (b) Verify that a student has completed requirements for graduation.
- (3) The system must provide management information to decisionmakers, including information relating student enrollment patterns and course demands to plans for corresponding course offerings and information useful in planning the student registration process.
- (4) In implementing the single, statewide, computer-assisted student advising system required under section 240.2099, Florida Statutes, the Board of Regents and the State Board of Community Colleges may:

3	enforce their rights with respect thereto;
4	(b) Enter into binding agreements with organizations,
5	corporations, or government entities to license, lease,
6	assign, or otherwise give written consent to any person, firm,
7	corporation, or agency for the use of the single, statewide,
8	computer-assisted student advising system and collect
9	royalties or any other consideration that the boards find
10	proper; and
11	(c) Sell or license any such work products and execute
12	all instruments necessary to consummate the sale or license.
13	(d) Final actions taken by the Board of Regents and
14	the State Board of Community Colleges or their successor,
15	related to the agreement, are subject to the notice review and
16	objection procedure established in s. 216.177, Florida
17	Statutes.
18	All or a portion of the proceeds derived from
19	activities authorized under this section may be expended for
20	the costs incurred in developing and maintaining the single,
21	statewide, computer-assisted student advising system.
