Amendment to Amendment (600753) (with title amendment)

On page 129, between lines 5 and 6, of the amendment

insert:

Section 85. This section may be cited as the "Moses General Miles Act."

(1) For the purpose of establishing a long-term residential care continuum of assisted living facilities for low-income elderly living in urban distressed communities, and as an additional source for community economic development opportunities in specific targeted areas, the Institute on Urban Policy and Commerce at Florida Agricultural and Mechanical University is authorized to develop a grant program to fund five pilot projects to be located in 5 of the 10 urban distressed communities of Pensacola, Tallahassee, Jacksonville, Daytona Beach, Orlando, Tampa, St. Petersburg, West Palm Beach, Ft. Lauderdale, and Miami-Dade. The funding for the five pilot projects shall be provided to not-for-profit community and faith-based organizations located

1 in urban distressed communities. Each organization seeking 2 funding shall submit to a review panel a strategic plan that 3 outlines the need and the location of assisted living
4 facilities for low-income elderly in the urban distressed
5 communities. The plan should incorporate public-private 6 partnerships that will be used for the development and 7 construction of the assisted living facilities in the urban 8 distressed communities. To be eligible for funding under this 9 program, a not-for-profit community and faith-based 10 organization must hold a current exemption from federal 11 taxation under s. 501(c)(3) or (4) of the Internal Revenue 12 Code. The institute shall develop criteria for the review of 13 the plans. The institute shall give priority consideration for 14 funding under this program to plans submitted by 15 neighborhood-based organizations that have as a principal part
16 of their missions the improvement of conditions for residents
17 of the neighborhoods in which the organizations are located.
18 The institute shall develop weighted criteria to be used in 19 evaluating applications from the community and faith-based 20 organizations.

21 (2) A review panel is created within the institute to 22 evaluate proposals for award of funding for the five pilot
23 projects. The review panel shall consist of eight members 24 appointed by the President of Florida Agricultural and 25 Mechanical University, as follows:

26 (a) One member who is affiliated with the Agency for 27 Health Care Administration.

28 (b) The Secretary of Health, or the secretary's 29 designee.

30 (c) The Secretary of Elderly Affairs, or the 31 secretary's designee.

11 Florida, Inc.

12
13 The director of the institute, or a designee, shall serve as 14 secretary to the review panel without voting rights.

15          (3) The institute shall develop and provide program
16 technical assistance support to the community and faith-based 17 organizations interested in this community economic 18 development initiative.

19          (4) The institute has the authority to adopt rules to 20 implement the provisions of his section.

21           Section 86. There is hereby appropriated from the 22 General Revenue Fund to the Institute on Urban Policy and 23 Commerce at Florida Agricultural and Mechanical University the 24 sum of $1.5 million to develop and provide program technical 25 assistance support to community and faith-based organizations,
26 and for contracts for five pilot projects, pursuant to this 27 act. The institute is authorized to allocate up to $225,000 to
