Improvement District, Broward County; amending chapter 71-580, Laws of Florida, as amended; increasing the board of supervisors to a total of five members; providing for elections by electors residing within the district; providing for regular and special board meetings instead of landowner meetings; providing for severability; providing an effective date.

A bill to be entitled

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

Section 1. Subsections (1) and (2) of section 5 of chapter 71-580, Laws of Florida, as amended by chapter 89-440, Laws of Florida, are amended to read:

Section 5. Board; election, organization; terms of office; quorum; report and minutes.--

(1) The board of the district shall exercise the powers granted to the district under this act and under chapter 298, Florida Statutes. The board shall consist of five three (3)members, and except as otherwise provided herein each member shall hold office for a term of 4 four (4)years and until his or her successor shall be chosen and shall qualify. Board members shall be elected at an election conducted by the supervisor of elections on the first Tuesday in November of the year in which the board members' terms expire. The costs of such elections shall be paid by the district.

(2) A majority of The members of the board shall be residents of Broward County, and all members shall be residents of Florida. All members of the board shall be landowners within the district and shall be elected as follows:

- (a) Two members shall be residents of the City of Coral Springs and shall be elected by a majority vote of registered electors casting votes at an election of those electors residing within the City of Coral Springs.
- (b) Two members shall be residents of the City of

 Parkland and shall be elected by a majority vote of registered electors casting votes at an election of those electors residing within the City of Parkland.

- (c) One member shall be elected at large by a majority vote of registered electors casting votes at an election of those electors residing within the district.
- (3) At the general election to be held in November 2002, one new board member shall be elected by electors residing within the City of Coral Springs and one new board member shall be elected by electors residing within the City of Parkland. Existing board members' terms as of the effective date of this act shall be extended to November of the year in which their terms expire and, commencing upon the expiration of the terms of those board members, all subsequent board members thereafter shall meet the requirements and shall be elected as provided in subsections (1) and (2). In the month of June of each fourth year commencing June of 1972, there shall be held a meeting of the landowners of the district at the office of the district in Broward County, Florida, for the purpose of electing three (3) supervisors for said district. One supervisor shall be elected solely by those landowners owning property within the city limits of the City of Parkland, and this supervisor must be a landowner who owns property within the city limits of the City of Parkland. One supervisor shall be elected solely by those landowners owning property within the city limits of the City of Coral Springs, and this supervisor must be a landowner who owns property within the city limits of the City of Coral Springs. One supervisor shall be elected at large by all landowners of the district, regardless of where their property is located. Candidates for each supervisor position will be nominated during the meeting of landowners, and the nominee who receives the highest number of votes for a supervisor position shall be declared elected. Notice of said landowners meeting shall be published once a week for 2 consecutive weeks in a newspaper in Broward County which is in general circulation with the district, the last of said publication to be not less than 14 days nor more than 28 days before the date of the election. The landowners when assembled at such meeting shall organize by electing a chairman who shall conduct the meeting. At such meeting each landowner shall be entitled to cast one vote per acre of land owned by him and located within the district. A landowner may vote in person or by proxy in writing. Fractions of an acre shall be treated as one acre, entitling the landowner to one vote with respect thereto. Section 2. Section 13 of chapter 71-580, Laws of time to receive reports of the board may be called at any time to receive reports of the board, or for such other purpose as the board may determine, upon 24 hours' notice to board members and to the public by posting such notice at the district office at a public location set aside for such purposes. The board may call special meetings of the landowners at any time to receive reports of the board or for such other purpose as to the board may determine. A special meeting of the landowners may also be called at any time upon notice as provided hereinabove at the written request of the owners of not less than twenty five (25) per cent in acreage of the land within the district for the purpose of taking any lawful action by the landowners of the district. Such special meeting shall be called by any court of competent jurisdiction in the event that the board fails to do so upon request as provided in the preceding sentence. Except as otherwise provided in section 5 of this act with respect to the election of supervisors, action taken at a meeting of the landowners shall be by affirmative vote of the owners of at least a majority in acreage of the land within the district represented at such meeting.

- (3) If no quorum is present or represented at a meeting of the landowners at the time and place the same is called to be held, the landowners present and represented, although less than a quorum, may adjourn to another time or day, and at such or any subsequent adjourned meetings may, if a quorum is then present or represented, take any action that the landowners could have taken a the meeting or meetings so adjourned for lack of a quorum.
- (4) At any meeting of the landowners, guardians may represent their wards; executors and administrators may represent the estate of deceased persons; trustees may represent lands held by them in trust; and private corporations may be represented by their duly authorized proxy. All landowners, including guardians, executors, administrators, trustees and corporations, may be represented and vote by proxy.

Section 3. In the event any one or more of the sections or provisions of this act or the application of such sections or provisions to any situation, circumstance, or person shall for any reason be held to be unconstitutional, such unconstitutionality shall not affect any other section or provision as to any other situation, circumstance, or person, and it is intended that this law shall be construed and
