House Resolution

A resolution designating the week of June 3-9, 2001, as "Chamber of Commerce Week" in Florida.

WHEREAS, there are chambers of commerce located throughout the communities of Florida, representing small and large businesses in operation in the state, and

WHEREAS, in addition to promoting the business, civic, and economic interests of the regions in which they serve, chambers of commerce provide input to leaders of all levels of government on various issues of critical concern to area residents, and

WHEREAS, today's chambers of commerce are also vigorously leading their communities in advancing technology, establishing a clear vision, and solving tough problems, and

WHEREAS, volunteers give unselfishly of their time, energy, and expertise in advancing the purposes of the local chambers of commerce and in meeting the goals of their annual programs, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Florida:

That the House of Representatives pauses in its deliberations to recognize the merits of the chambers of commerce of the state and to express its sincere appreciation for the steadfast efforts of all those involved in their area organizations.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the House of Representatives enthusiastically designates the week of June 3-9, 2001, as "Chamber of Commerce Week" in Florida.
