Amendment

On page 12, line 10 through page 13, line 22, remove from the bill: all of said lines and insert in lieu thereof: school, and where persons may be placed immediately after their date of release from a correctional institution or a community correctional center, who are in need of placement in a substance abuse transition housing program, and who are considered eligible for such placement by the department. However, an offender may only reside in a substance abuse transition housing program upon the lawful expiration of his or her prison sentence in accordance with s. 944.275 or other applicable law regarding percentage of sentence served. Under no circumstances may any inmate be placed in contracted substance abuse transition housing or contracted faith-based substance abuse transition housing, until the inmate has served the entirety of his or her lawful prison sentence in accordance with s. 944.275 or other applicable law regarding percentage of sentence served.

1 2. Secure facilities which provide for limited access
2 for the duration of the program for persons who have violated
3 their conditions of probation, drug offender probation, or 4 community control, and whose presumptive sentence exceeds 22
5 months.

6 (c) A system of probation and restitution centers
7 throughout the state whereby probationers, drug offender
8 probationers, and community controllees who have violated
9 their terms or conditions, and whose presumptive sentence
10 exceeds 22 months, may be required to reside while working, 11 receiving treatment, or attending school, or for persons on 12 probation, drug offender probation, or community control who 13 may be required to attend outpatient substance abuse 14 counseling and where persons may be placed immediately after 15 their date of release from a correctional institution or a 16 community correctional center, who are in need of placement in 17 a substance abuse transition housing program, and who are 18 considered eligible for such placement by the department.
19 However an offender may only reside in a substance abuse 20 transition housing program upon the lawful expiration of his 21 or her prison sentence in accordance with s. 944.275 or other 22 applicable law regarding percentage of sentence served. Under 23 no circumstances may any inmate be placed in contracted 24 substance abuse transition housing or contracted faith-based 25 substance abuse transition housing, until the inmate has 26 served the entirety of his or her lawful prison sentence in 27 accordance with s. 944.275 or other applicable law regarding 28 percentage of sentence served.The purpose of these facilities 29 and services is to provide the court with an alternative to 30 committing offenders to more secure state correctional 31 institutions and to assist in the supervision of probationers,

1 drug offender probationers, and community controllees and to 2 provide the department transitional-housing beds to assist 3 inmates released into the community.

4 (2) By January 1, 2002, and notwithstanding any other 5 law, the department shall ensure that at least 400 of its 6 contracted beds in nonsecure community-based residential 7 substance-abuse-treatment facilities authorized under 8 subparagraph (1)(b)1. or probation and restitution centers 9 authorized under paragraph (1)(c) are designated for 10 transition assistance for recently released inmates from a 11 correctional institution or a community correctional center.
12 These designated beds shall be provided by private 13 organizations that do not have a faith component and that are 14 under contract with the department. In making placement 15 decisions prior to the lawful expiration of sentence, the 16 department and the contract providers shall give priority 17 consideration to those released inmates who will be placed in 18 some
