Senator Webster moved the following amendment:

Senate Amendment

On page 1, lines 17-19, delete those lines

and insert:

(nn) Except as otherwise provided herein, delegating ocular post-operative responsibilities to a person other than an ophthalmologist licensed as a physician under this chapter or chapter 459. Nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit an ophthalmologist performing cataract surgery from delegating ocular post-operative responsibilities relating to that cataract surgery to a board certified optometrist licensed under chapter 463 provided that the board certified optometrist is supervised by the operating surgeon or an equivalently trained ophthalmologist, and the operating surgeon remains responsible for the management of the patient's post-operative care.
