comply with state regulations. Such costs shall also be 1 2 reported as per capita costs of regulation. 3 (c) Total state and local government employment, including, but not limited to, subcontracted labor, expressed 4 5 in full-time employee equivalents. Such employment shall also 6 be reported as a percentage of the total workforce of this 7 state. 8 (d) Total assets of the state and local governments, 9 including, but not limited to, acreage, roads, buildings, investments, and funds. Such assets shall also be reported as 10 per capita assets. 11 12 (e) Total liabilities of the state and local governments, including, but not limited to, public 13 14 indebtedness. Such liabilities shall also be reported as per 15 capita debt. (f) To the extend similar data is available, a 16 17 comparative analysis of the size and impact of Florida's 18 government sector with that of all other states. 19 (2) The office shall establish a methodology and 20 appropriate assumptions necessary for the efficient and 21 cost-effective implementation of this act. After establishing a methodology, the office shall use the economic indicators to 22 23 establish a baseline for the year 2000. Using the same methodology, the office shall prepare the economic indicators 24 for the years 1980 and 1990, including any supplemental 25 26 assumptions necessary to bridge gaps in available data. Where necessary in the report of economic indicators, qualifying 27 statements may be made to make clear the limitations of the 28 29 methodology and any resultant range of accuracy. Section 3. This act shall take effect upon becoming a 30 31 law. 2
