Section 1. Section 256.15, Florida Statutes, is created to read:

256.15 Display of U.S. flag; prohibition unlawful; penalty.--

(1) It is unlawful for any person to prohibit:

(a) The display of the flag of the United States, or

(b) The display of the flag of the United States by means of a portable, removable flag pole.

This section shall not apply when the display of the flag of the United States would constitute a threat to the health or safety of any person or would interfere with the operation of a business or educational institution.

(2) A violation of this section constitutes a noncriminal violation. The first violation shall be punished

1 by fine in an amount not to exceed $500. A second or
2 subsequent violation shall be punished by fine in an amount
3 not to exceed $10,000.

4 Section 2. This act applies retroactively regardless
5 of any declaration rules or requirements of homeowners'
6 association dealing with flags or decorations.
