Amendment

On page 811, line 11, of the bill

insert:

10. Administration of the Florida Comprehensive Assessment Test (FCAT) each school year is contingent on full funding for low-performing schools in that fiscal year. For the 2002-2003 fiscal year, "full funding" means $10 million for continuation of grants and aids to improve student performance, student achievement, and readiness for college in low-performing schools. For subsequent fiscal years, "full funding" means an amount equal to the funds appropriated for low-performing schools in the prior fiscal year, adjusted annually for inflation and increases in population of students in "D" and "F" schools.
