The Committee on Education Innovation offered the following:

Amendment

On page 2, lines 3 through 27, remove: all of said lines

and insert:

(3) As required pursuant to subsection (4), each district school board shall conduct written analyses of the cost and of the level and quality of services associated with each of the following noninstructional services it has not already contracted: student transportation, food services, and facilities operations and maintenance; and shall issue request for proposals or solicitation of bids for the provision of these noninstructional services that it has not already contracted. The required analyses and the request for proposals or solicitation of bids shall be in a form consistent with that provided to the Department of Education by the Florida School Boards Association and Florida TaxWatch.

(4) Each district school board shall conduct a written analysis of the cost and of the level and quality of service

Amendment No. 1 (for drafter's use only)

1 and shall issue request for proposals or solicitation of bids 2 for:

3 (a) any one of the noninstructional services listed in 4 this section during the 2002-2003 school year, unless it has 5 already contracted the service;

6 (b) one of the other noninstructional services listed
7 in this section during the 2003-2004 school year, unless it 8 has already contracted the service; and 9 (c) any remaining noninstructional services listed in 10 this section during the 2004-2005 school year, unless it has 11 already contracted the service.

12 After the 2004-2005 school year, any school district
13 that has not contracted for the provision of a 14 noninstructional service listed in this section shall 15 periodically conduct an analysis of such service according to 16 the requirements of this section.
