7 (3) TERMS, ORGANIZATION, AND MEETINGS.--

8 (e) The commission may employ an executive director, 9 subject to approval or dismissal by the chief financial 10 officer, and such staff as is necessary, within the limits of 11 legislative appropriation. The commission may retain such 12 consultants as it deems necessary to accomplish its mission.
13 Neither the executive director nor any consultant retained by 14 the commission may have been an employee or a contract vendor
15 of or a consultant to the department or the Department of 16 Juvenile Justice, or an employee or a contract vendor of or a 17 consultant to a bidder, for 2 years prior to employment with 18 the commission and may not become an employee or a contract
19 vendor of or a consultant to the department or the Department
20 of Juvenile Justice, or an employee or a contract vendor of or 21 a consultant to a bidder, for 2 years following termination of 22 employment with the commission.

23 (6) OFFICE OF THE CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER ~~SUPPORT BY~~ 24 ~~DEPARTMENT OF MANAGEMENT SERVICES.~~--The commission shall be a 25 separate budget entity, and the executive director shall be 26 its chief administrative officer. The office of the chief 27 financial officer ~~Department of Management Services~~ shall 28 provide administrative support, oversight, and service to the 29 commission ~~to the extent requested by the executive director.~~
30 ~~The commission and its staff are not subject to control,~~
31 ~~supervision, or direction by the Department of Management~~
