and insert: services for young adults through a continuum of an array of transition services utilizing state foster care and federal funds. The continuum of services may include options that range from remaining in current foster care placement, assisted living in a group home, and fully independent living, depending on the skills and maturity of the child. Services may include, but are not limited to, educational and vocational training and developing personal support systems as more fully set forth in subsection (8). Youth who were in foster care prior to 18 years of age and who leave foster care at 18 years of age shall be eligible for services as set forth in
