Amendment

On page 2, line 28, through page 3, line 2, remove: all of said lines

and insert:

(6) The state, state agencies, local governments, and local government agencies have operational immunity for any injury caused by the placement, location, or for the failure to install the uniform rip current warning signs provided for in this section; however, this is not intended to limit in any way the responsibility imposed on such entities by other provisions of law with regard to the posting of rip current warning signs on public beaches.
