

Bill No. CS for SB 426

Amendment No.      Barcode 144956

1 distribution that such municipality received for the calendar
2 year 1998 is not required to expend for extra pension benefits
3 such portion of its insurance premium tax distribution which 4 exceeds 200 percent of the calendar year 1998 distribution,
5 provided such municipality has met all the minimum pension
6 benefit requirements of chapter 99-1, Laws of Florida. This 7 paragraph is effective only for calendar year 2004 and expires
8 on January 1, 2005.

9       (c) The contrary notwithstanding, beginning January 1,
10 2005, and each calendar year thereafter, each municipality
11 that receives the insurance premium tax and has met all the 12 minimum pension benefits required in chapter 99-1, Laws of 13 Florida, must expend its total annual distribution of such 14 insurance premium tax to provide additional or extra benefits 15 for its police officers. The term "extra or additional 16 benefits" means benefits that are greater than those provided
17 to the general employees of March 12, 1999, and thereafter.

18       (d) The requirements of this subsection do not apply
19 to a municipality that uses its insurance premium tax 20 distribution for supplemental benefits. Furthermore, the 21 Municipal Police and Firefighters Trust Fund Office shall 22 determine the appropriate distribution and shall notify the 23 respective municipality.
