Representative(s) Rubio offered the following:

Amendment to Amendment (121137) (with title amendment)

On page 105, between lines 24 and 25

insert:

Section 101. Subsection (4) is added to section 401.2715, Florida Statutes, to read:

401.2715 Recertification training of emergency medical technicians and paramedics.--

(4) Any certified emergency medical technician or paramedic may, as a condition of recertification, complete up to 8 hours of training to respond to terrorism, as defined in s. 775.30, and such hours completed may be substituted on an hour-for-hour basis for any other areas of training required for recertification. The department may adopt rules necessary to administer this subsection.

Section 102. Subsection (1) of section 633.35, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

633.35 Firefighter training and certification.--

(1) The division shall establish a firefighter

Amendment No. 1 (for drafter's use only)

1 training program of not less than 360 hours, administered by 2 such agencies and institutions as it approves for the purpose
3 of providing basic employment training for firefighters. Any 4 firefighter may, as a condition of certification, complete up 5 to 8 hours of training to respond to terrorism, as defined in 6 s. 775.30, and such hours completed may be substituted on an 7 hour-for-hour basis for any other areas of training required
8 for certification. The division may adopt rules necessary to 9 administer this subsection. Nothing herein shall require a 10 public employer to pay the cost of such training.

11 Section 103. Subsection (1) of section 943.135,
12 Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

13 943.135 Requirements for continued employment.--

14 (1) The commission shall, by rule, adopt a program
15 that requires all officers, as a condition of continued
16 employment or appointment as officers, to receive periodic 17 commission-approved continuing training or education. Such 18 continuing training or education shall be required at the rate 19 of 40 hours every 4 years, up to 8 hours of which may consist 20 of training to respond to terrorism as defined in s. 775.30.

21 No officer shall be denied a reasonable opportunity by the 22 employing agency to comply with this section. The employing 23 agency must document that the continuing training or education 24 is job-related and consistent with the needs of the employing 25 agency. The employing agency must maintain and submit, or 26 electronically transmit, the documentation to the commission, 27 in a format approved by the commission. The rule shall also 28 provide:

29 (a) Assistance to an employing agency in identifying 30 each affected officer, the date of his or her employment or 31 appointment, and his or her most recent date for successful

Amendment No. 1 (for drafter's use only)

1 completion of continuing training or education;

2 (b) A procedure for reactivation of the certification
3 of an officer who is not in compliance with this section; and

4 (c) A remediation program supervised by the training 5 center director within the geographic area for any officer who 6 is attempting to comply with the provisions of this subsection
7 and in whom learning disabilities are identified. The officer
8 shall be assigned nonofficer duties, without loss of employee 9 benefits, and the program shall not exceed 90 days.
