26 Section 1. Subsection (7) of section 39.502, Florida
27 Statutes, is amended to read:

28 (7) Service of the summons and service of pleadings,
29 papers, and notices subsequent to the summons on persons
30 outside this state must be made pursuant to s. 61.509 ~~s.~~ 31 ~~61.1312~~.

1 Section 2. For purposes of incorporating amendments
2 to s. 61.13, F.S., subsection (2) of section 44.102, F.S., is 3 re-enacted to read:

4 44.102 Court-ordered mediation.--

5 (2) A court, under rules adopted by the Supreme Court:

6 (a) Must, upon request of one party, refer to 7 mediation any filed civil action for monetary damages, 8 provided the requesting party is willing and able to pay the 9 costs of the mediation or the costs can be equitably divided 10 between the parties, unless:

11 1. The action is a landlord and tenant dispute that 12 does not include a claim for personal injury.

13 2. The action is filed for the purpose of collecting a 14 debt.

15 3. The action is a claim of medical malpractice.

16 4. The action is governed by the Florida Small Claims 17 Rules.

18 5. The court determines that the action is proper for 19 referral to nonbinding arbitration under this chapter.

20 6. The parties have agreed to binding arbitration.

21 7. The parties have agreed to an expedited trial
22 pursuant to s. 45.075.

23 8. The parties have agreed to voluntary trial
24 resolution pursuant to s. 44.104.

25 (b) May refer to mediation all or any part of a filed 26 civil action for which mediation is not required under this 27 section.

28 (c) In circuits in which a family mediation program
29 has been established and upon a court finding of a dispute, 30 shall refer to mediation all or part of custody, visitation,
31 or other parental responsibility issues as defined in s.

1 61.13. Upon motion or request of a party, a court shall not 2 refer any case to mediation if it finds there has been a 3 history of domestic violence that would compromise the 4 mediation process.

5 (d) In circuits in which a dependency or in need of 6 services mediation program has been established, may refer to 7 mediation all or any portion of a matter relating to 8 dependency or to a child in need of services or a family in 9 need of services.

10 Section 3. Paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of section 11 61.13, Florida Statutes, is amended, and paragraph (e) is 12 added to said subsection, to read:

13 61.13 Custody and support of children; visitation
14 rights; power of court in making orders.--

15 (2)

16 (b)1. The court shall determine all matters relating 17 to custody of each minor child of the parties in accordance 18 with the best interests of the child and in accordance with 19 the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act. It 20 is the public policy of this state to assure that each minor
21 child has frequent and continuing contact with both parents 22 after the parents separate or the marriage of the parties is 23 dissolved and to encourage parents to share the rights and 24 responsibilities, and joys, of childrearing. After considering 25 all relevant facts, the father of the child shall be given the 26 same consideration as the mother in determining the primary 27 residence of a child irrespective of the age or sex of the 28 child.

29 (e) When either parent materially violates a 30 visitation or custody order without proper cause or consent of 31 the other parent, in addition to any other remedies and

1 sanctions provided at law, the court may order the violating 2 party to post a bond or other security sufficient to provide 3 for economic damages to the other party for any future
4 violation. For purposes of this section, a material violation 5 of a visitation or custody order shall include failure of 6 either parent to provide care for a child during a time
7 designated in a court order for him or her to be responsible 8 for the child. However, when a party materially violates a 9 visitation or custody order by removing the child from this 10 state or country or by concealing the whereabouts of the 11 child, section 4. of this bill and not this subsection shall 12 apply.

13 1. This subsection does not apply when a parent who is 14 the victim of any act of domestic violence or who has 15 reasonable cause to believe he or she is about to become the 16 victim of any act of domestic violence, as defined in s.
17 741.28, takes action contrary to a visitation or custody order
18 based upon a good faith belief that such action was necessary 19 to preserve the child from danger to his or her welfare.
20 However, in order to gain the exemption conferred in this 21 subparagraph, the party claiming the exemption must within 10 22 days of the violation file with the court that issued the 23 visitation or custody order an affidavit setting out the facts
24 which are the basis for claiming the exemption.

25 2. Upon a future material violation of any custody or 26 visitation order entered under this section, the court may 27 order the bond or other security forfeited in whole or in 28 part. The proceeds of any bond or other security posted 29 pursuant to this subsection may be used to reimburse the 30 nonviolating party for actual costs or damages, including 31 without limitation the costs to locate and return the child,

1 reasonable attorney's fees and costs, and lost wages or child
2 care expenses.

3 3. The court must consider the party's financial 4 resources prior to setting the bond amount under this section.
5 Under no circumstances may the court set a bond that is 6 unreasonable.

7 4. Any deficiency of bond or security shall not
8 absolve the violating party of responsibility to pay the full
9 amount of damages determined by the court.

10 5. Any remaining proceeds shall be held as further 11 security if deemed necessary by the court, and if further
12 security is not found to be necessary; applied to any child
13 support arrears owed by the parent against whom the bond was 14 required, and if no arrears exists; all remaining proceeds
15 will be allocated by the court in the best interest of the 16 child.

17 6. At any time after the forfeiture of the bond or 18 other security, the party who posted the bond or other 19 security, or the court on its own motion may request that the 20 party provide documentation substantiating that the proceeds
21 received as a result of the forfeiture have been used solely 22 in accordance with this subsection. Any party using such 23 proceeds for purposes not in accordance with this section may 24 be found in contempt of court.

25 Section 4. (1) In a proceeding in which the court
26 enters an order of child custody or visitation, including in a 27 modification proceeding, upon the presentation of competent 28 substantial evidence that there is a risk that one party may 29 violate the court's order of visitation or custody by removing 30 a child from this state or country or by concealing the 31

1 whereabouts of a child, or upon stipulation of the parties, 2 the court may:

3 (a) Order that a parent may not remove the child from 4 this state without the notarized written permission of both 5 parents or further court order;

6 (b) Order that a parent may not remove the child from 7 this country without the notarized written permission of both 8 parents or further court order;

9 (c) Order that a parent may not take the child to a 10 country that has not ratified or acceded to the Hague
11 Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child
12 Abduction unless the other parent agrees in writing that the 13 child may be taken to the country;

14 (d) Require a parent to surrender the passport of the 15 child; or

16 (e) Require that party to post bond or other security.

17 (2) If the court enters an order of child custody or 18 visitation, including in a modification proceeding, that 19 includes a provision entered under (b) or (c) a certified copy 20 of the order should be sent by the parent who requested the 21 restriction to the Passport Services Office of the U.S.
22 Department of State requesting that they not issue a passport
23 to the child without their signature or further court order.

24 (3) In assessing the need for a bond or other 25 security, the court may consider any reasonable factor bearing 26 upon the risk that a party may violate a visitation or custody 27 order by removing a child from this state or country or by 28 concealing the whereabouts of a child, including but not 29 limited to whether:

30 (a) A court has previously found that a party 31 previously removed a child from Florida or another state in

1 violation of a custody or visitation order, or whether a court 2 had found that a party has threatened to take a child out of 3 Florida or another state in violation of a custody or 4 visitation order;

5 (b) The party has strong family and community ties to 6 Florida or to other states or countries, including whether the 7 party or child is a citizen of another country;

8 (c) The party has strong financial reasons to remain
9 in Florida or to relocate to another state or country;

10 (d) The party has engaged in activities that suggest 11 plans to leave Florida, such as quitting employment; sale of a 12 residence or termination of a lease on a residence, without 13 efforts to acquire an alternative residence in the state; 14 closing bank accounts or otherwise liquidating assets; or 15 applying for a passport;

16 (e) Either party has had a history of domestic 17 violence as either a victim or perpetrator, child abuse or 18 child neglect evidenced by criminal history, including but not 19 limited to, arrest, an injunction for protection against 20 domestic violence issued after notice and hearing under s.
21 741.30, medical records, affidavits, or any other relevant 22 information; or

23 (f) The party has a criminal record.

24 (4) The court must consider the party's financial
25 resources prior to setting the bond amount under this section.
26 Under no circumstances may the court set a bond that is 27 unreasonable.

28 (5) Any deficiency of bond or security shall not
29 absolve the violating party of responsibility to pay the full
30 amount of damages determined by the court.

31

1 (6) Upon presentation of competent substantial
2 evidence that the party who posted the bond or other security
3 has materially violated a court order of visitation or custody 4 by removing the child from this state or country or by 5 concealing the whereabouts of the child, the court may order 6 the bond or other security forfeited in whole or in part.
7 This section does not apply when a parent who is the victim of 8 any act of domestic violence or who has reasonable cause to 9 believe he or she is about to become the victim of any act of 10 domestic violence, as defined in s. 741.28, seeks shelter from 11 such acts or possible acts and takes with him or her, or 12 conceals, any child 17 years of age or younger. However, in 13 order to gain the exemption conferred in this subparagraph, 14 the party claiming the exemption must comply with the 15 requirements set out in s. 787.03(6)(b), F.S.

16 (7) Upon an order of forfeiture, the proceeds of any 17 bond or other security posted pursuant to this subsection may 18 only be used to:

19 (a) Reimburse the nonviolating party for actual costs
20 or damages incurred in upholding the court's order of custody 21 or visitation.

22 (b) Locate and return the child to the residence as 23 set forth in the visitation or custody order.

24 (c) Reimburse reasonable fees and costs as determined 25 by the court.

26 (d) Any remaining proceeds shall be held as further
27 security if deemed necessary by the court, and if further
28 security is not found to be necessary; applied to any child
29 support arrears owed by the parent against whom the bond was 30 required, and if no arrears exists; all remaining proceeds
31

1 will be allocated by the court in the best interest of the 2 child.

3 (8) At any time after the forfeiture of the bond or 4 other security, the party who posted the bond or other
5 security, or the court on its own motion may request that the 6 party provide documentation substantiating that the proceeds
7 received as a result of the forfeiture have been used solely 8 in accordance with this subsection. Any party using such 9 proceeds for purposes not in accordance with this section may 10 be found in contempt of court.

11 Section 5. Sections 61.501 through 61.542, Florida

20 (1) A child custody proceeding that pertains to an 21 Indian child, as defined in the Indian Child Welfare Act, 25 22 U.S.C. s. 1901 et seq., is not subject to this part to the 23 extent that it is governed by the Indian Child Welfare Act.

24 (2) A court of this state shall treat a tribe as if it
25 were a state of the United States for purposes of applying ss.
26 61.501-61.523.

27 (3) A child custody determination made by a tribe

26 61.509 Notice to persons outside the state.--

4 prescribed by the laws of the state in which the service is 5 made.

6 (3) Notice is not required for the exercise of 7 jurisdiction with respect to a person who submits to the 9 61.510 Appearance and limited immunity.--

15 having participated, or of having been physically present for 16 the purpose of participating, in the proceeding.

17 (2) A person who is subject to personal jurisdiction
18 in this state on a basis other than physical presence is not 19 immune from service of process in this state. A party present 20 in this state who is subject to the jurisdiction of another 21 state is not immune from service of process allowable under 22 the laws of that state.

23 (3) The immunity granted by subsection (1) does not 24 extend to civil litigation based on an act unrelated to the 25 participation in a proceeding under this part which was 26 committed by an individual while present in this state.

27 61.511 Communication between courts.--

28 (1) A court of this state may communicate with a court 29 in another state concerning a proceeding arising under this 30 part.

31

1 (2) The court shall allow the parties to participate
2 in the communication. If the parties elect to participate in

4 present facts and legal arguments before a decision on 5 jurisdiction is made.

6 (3) Communication between courts on schedules,
7 calendars, court records, and similar matters may occur
8 without informing the parties. A record need not be made of 9 the communication.

10 (4) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3), a 11 record must be made of a communication under this section. The 12 parties must be informed promptly of the communication and 13 granted access to the record.

14 (5) For purposes of this section, the term "record" 15 means a form of information, including, but not limited to, an 16 electronic recording or transcription by a court reporter
17 which creates a verbatim memorialization of any communication 18 between two or more individuals or entities.

19 61.512 Taking testimony in another state.--

20 (1) In addition to other procedures available to a 21 party, a party to a child custody proceeding may offer
22 testimony of witnesses who are located in another state, 23 including testimony of the parties and the child, by 24 deposition or other means available in this state for 25 testimony taken in another state. The court on its own motion 26 may order that the testimony of a person be taken in another 27 state and may prescribe the manner in which and the terms upon 28 which the testimony is taken.

29 (2) Upon agreement of the parties, a court of this 30 state may permit an individual residing in another state to be 31 deposed or to testify by telephone, audiovisual means, or

1 other electronic means before a designated court or at another
2 location in that state. A court of this state shall cooperate
3 with courts of other states in designating an appropriate 4 location for the deposition or testimony.

5 (3) Documentary evidence transmitted from another 6 state to a court of this state by technological means that 7 does not produce an original writing may not be excluded from 8 evidence on an objection based on the means of transmission.

12 court of another state to:

14 (b) Order a person to produce or give evidence 15 pursuant to the laws of that state;

16 (c) Order that an evaluation be made with respect to 17 the custody of a child involved in a pending proceeding 18 pursuant to the laws of the state where the proceeding is 19 pending;

20 (d) Forward to the court of this state a certified 21 copy of the transcript of the record of the hearing, the 22 evidence otherwise presented, and any evaluation prepared in 23 compliance with the request; or

24 (e) Order a party to a child custody proceeding or any 25 person having physical custody of the child to appear in the 26 proceeding with or without the child.

27 (2) Upon request of a court of another state, a court 28 of this state may hold a hearing or enter an order described 29 in subsection (1).

30 (3) Travel and other necessary and reasonable expenses 31 incurred under subsections (1) and (2) may be assessed against

1 the parties according to the laws of this state if the court 2 has personal jurisdiction over the party against whom these 3 expenses are being assessed.

4 (4) A court of this state shall preserve the 5 pleadings, orders, decrees, records of hearings, evaluations,
6 and other pertinent records with respect to a child custody
7 proceeding until the child attains 18 years of age. Upon 8 appropriate request by a court or law enforcement official of 9 another state, the court shall forward a certified copy of 10 these records.

11 61.514 Initial child custody jurisdiction.--

12 (1) Except as otherwise provided in s. 61.517, a court
13 of this state has jurisdiction to make an initial child 14 custody determination only if:

15 (a) This state is the home state of the child on the 16 date of the commencement of the proceeding, or was the home 17 state of the child within 6 months before the commencement of 18 the proceeding and the child is absent from this state but a 19 parent or person acting as a parent continues to live in this 20 state;

21 (b) A court of another state does not have 22 jurisdiction under paragraph (a), or a court of the home state 23 of the child has declined to exercise jurisdiction on the 24 grounds that this state is the more appropriate forum under s.
25 61.520 or s. 61.521, and:

26 1. The child and the child's parents, or the child and 27 at least one parent or a person acting as a parent, have a 28 significant connection with this state other than mere 29 physical presence; and 30
31

1 2. Substantial evidence is available in this state
2 concerning the child's care, protection, training, and 3 personal relationships;

4 (c) All courts having jurisdiction under paragraph (a) 5 or paragraph (b) have declined to exercise jurisdiction on the 6 grounds that a court of this state is the more appropriate 7 forum to determine the custody of the child under s. 61.520 or 8 s. 61.521; or

9 (d) No court of any other state would have 10 jurisdiction under the criteria specified in paragraph (a), 11 paragraph (b), or paragraph (c).

12 (2) Subsection (1) is the exclusive jurisdictional 13 basis for making a child custody determination by a court of 14 this state.

15 (3) Physical presence of, or personal jurisdiction 16 over, a party or a child is not necessary or sufficient to 17 make a child custody determination.

18 61.515 Exclusive, continuing jurisdiction.--

19 (1) Except as otherwise provided in s. 61.517, a court
20 of this state which has made a child custody determination 21 consistent with s. 61.514 or s. 61.516 has exclusive, 22 continuing jurisdiction over the determination until:

23 (a) A court of this state determines that the child, 24 the child's parents, and any person acting as a parent does 25 not have a significant connection with this state and that 26 substantial evidence is no longer available in this state
27 concerning the child's care, protection, training, and 28 personal relationships; or

29 (b) A court of this state or a court of another state
30 determines that the child, the child's parent, and any person 31 acting as a parent does not presently reside in this state.

1 (2) A court of this state which has made a child
2 custody determination and does not have exclusive, continuing 3 jurisdiction under this section may modify that determination
4 only if it has jurisdiction to make an initial determination 5 under s. 61.514.

6 61.516 Jurisdiction to modify a determination.--Except 7 as otherwise provided in s. 61.517, a court of this state may 8 not modify a child custody determination made by a court of 9 another state unless a court of this state has jurisdiction to 10 make an initial determination under s. 61.514(1)(a) or s.
11 61.514(1)(b) and:

12 (1) The court of the other state determines it no
13 longer has exclusive, continuing jurisdiction under s. 61.515
14 or that a court of this state would be a more convenient forum 15 under s. 61.520; or

16 (2) A court of this state or a court of the other 17 state determines that the child, the child's parents, and any 18 person acting as a parent does not presently reside in the 19 other state.

20 61.517 Temporary emergency jurisdiction.--

21 (1) A court of this state has temporary emergency 22 jurisdiction if the child is present in this state and the 23 child has been abandoned or it is necessary in an emergency to 24 protect the child because the child, or a sibling or parent of 25 the child, is subjected to or threatened with mistreatment or 26 abuse.

27 (2) If there is no previous child custody
28 determination that is entitled to be enforced under this part,
29 and a child custody proceeding has not been commenced in a 30 court of a state having jurisdiction under ss. 61.514-61.616, 31 a child custody determination made under this section remains

1 in effect until an order is obtained from a court of a state
2 having jurisdiction under ss. 61.514-61.516. If a child
3 custody proceeding has not been or is not commenced in a court
4 of a state having jurisdiction under ss. 61.514-61.516, a 5 child custody determination made under this section becomes a 6 final determination if it so provides and this state becomes 7 the home state of the child.

8 (3) If there is a previous child custody determination 9 that is entitled to be enforced under this part, or a child 10 custody proceeding has been commenced in a court of a state 11 having jurisdiction under ss. 61.514-61.516, any order issued 12 by a court of this state under this section must specify in 13 the order a period that the court considers adequate to allow 14 the person seeking an order to obtain an order from the state
15 having jurisdiction under ss. 61.514-61.516. The order issued 16 in this state remains in effect until an order is obtained 17 from the other state within the period specified or the period
18 expires.

19 (4) A court of this state which has been asked to make 20 a child custody determination under this section, upon being 21 informed that a child custody proceeding has been commenced
22 in, or a child custody determination has been made by, a court 23 of a state having jurisdiction under ss. 61.514-61.516, shall 24 immediately communicate with the other court. A court of this 25 state which is exercising jurisdiction under ss.
26 61.514-61.516, upon being informed that a child custody
27 proceeding has been commenced in, or a child custody 28 determination has been made by, a court of another state under 29 a statute similar to this section shall immediately 30 communicate with the court of that state to resolve the 31 emergency, protect the safety of the parties and the child,

1 and determine a period for the duration of the temporary 2 order.

3 61.518 Notice; opportunity to be heard; joinder.--

4 (1) Before a child custody determination is made under 5 this part, notice and an opportunity to be heard in accordance 6 with the standards of s. 61.509 must be given to all persons
7 entitled to notice under the laws of this state as in child 8 custody proceedings between residents of this state, any 9 parent whose parental rights have not been previously 10 terminated, and any person acting as a parent.

11 (2) This part does not govern the enforceability of a 12 child custody determination made without notice or an 13 opportunity to be heard.

14 (3) The obligation to join a party and the right to 15 intervene as a party in a child custody proceeding under this 16 part are governed by the laws of this state as in child 17 custody proceedings between residents of this state.

18 61.519 Simultaneous proceedings.--

19 (1) Except as otherwise provided in s. 61.517, a court
20 of this state may not exercise its jurisdiction under ss.
21 61.514-61.524 if, at the time of the commencement of the 22 proceeding, a proceeding concerning the custody of the child 23 had been commenced in a court of another state having 24 jurisdiction substantially in conformity with this part, 25 unless the proceeding has been terminated or is stayed by the 26 court of the other state because a court of this state is a 27 more convenient forum under s. 61.520.

28 (2) Except as otherwise provided in s. 61.517, a court
29 of this state, before hearing a child custody proceeding, 30 shall examine the court documents and other information
31 supplied by the parties pursuant to s. 61.522. If the court

1 determines that a child custody proceeding was previously
2 commenced in a court in another state having jurisdiction
3 substantially in accordance with this part, the court of this 4 state shall stay its proceeding and communicate with the court
5 of the other state. If the court of the state having 6 jurisdiction substantially in accordance with this part does 7 not determine that the court of this state is a more 8 appropriate forum, the court of this state shall dismiss the 9 proceeding.

10 (3) In a proceeding to modify a child custody
11 determination, a court of this state shall determine whether a 12 proceeding to enforce the determination has been commenced in 13 another state. If a proceeding to enforce a child custody
14 determination has been commenced in another state, the court 15 may:

16 (a) Stay the proceeding for modification pending the 17 entry of an order of a court of the other state enforcing, 18 staying, denying, or dismissing the proceeding for 19 enforcement;

20 (b) Enjoin the parties from continuing with the 21 proceeding for enforcement; or

22 (c) Proceed with the modification under conditions it 23 considers appropriate.

24 61.520 Inconvenient forum.--

25 (1) A court of this state which has jurisdiction under 26 this part to make a child custody determination may decline to 27 exercise its jurisdiction at any time if it determines that it 28 is an inconvenient forum under the circumstances and that a 29 court of another state is a more appropriate forum. The issue
30 of inconvenient forum may be raised upon motion of a party, 31 the court's own motion, or request of another court.

1 (2) Before determining whether it is an inconvenient
2 forum, a court of this state shall consider whether it is 3 appropriate for a court of another state to exercise
4 jurisdiction. For this purpose, the court shall allow the 5 parties to submit information and shall consider all relevant 6 factors, including:

7 (a) Whether domestic violence has occurred and is 8 likely to continue in the future and which state could best 9 protect the parties and the child;

10 (b) The length of time the child has resided outside
11 this state;

12 (c) The distance between the court in this state and 13 the court in the state that would assume jurisdiction;

14 (d) The relative financial circumstances of the 15 parties;

16 (e) Any agreement of the parties as to which state 17 should assume jurisdiction;

18 (f) The nature and location of the evidence required 19 to resolve the pending litigation, including testimony of the 20 child;

21 (g) The ability of the court of each state to decide 22 the issue expeditiously and the procedures necessary to 23 present the evidence; and

24 (h) The familiarity of the court of each state with 25 the facts and issues in the pending litigation.

26 (3) If a court of this state determines that it is an 27 inconvenient forum and that a court of another state is a more 28 appropriate forum, it shall stay the proceedings upon 29 condition that a child custody proceeding be promptly 30 commenced in another designated state and may impose any other 31 condition the court considers just and proper.

1 (4) A court of this state may decline to exercise its 2 jurisdiction under this part if a child custody determination
3 is incidental to an action for divorce or another proceeding
4 while still retaining jurisdiction over the divorce or other
5 proceeding.

6 61.521 Jurisdiction declined by reason of conduct.--

7 (1) Except as otherwise provided in s. 61.517 or by 8 other law of this state, if a court of this state has 9 jurisdiction under this part because a person seeking to 10 invoke its jurisdiction has engaged in unjustifiable conduct, 11 the court shall decline to exercise its jurisdiction unless:

12 (a) The parents and all persons acting as parents have 13 acquiesced in the exercise of jurisdiction;

14 (b) A court of the state otherwise having jurisdiction
15 under ss. 61.514-61.516 determines that this state is a more 16 appropriate forum under s. 61.520; or

17 (c) No court of any other state would have 18 jurisdiction under the criteria specified in ss.
19 61.514-61.516.

20 (2) If a court of this state declines to exercise its 21 jurisdiction under subsection (1), it may fashion an 22 appropriate remedy to ensure the safety of the child and 23 prevent a repetition of the unjustifiable conduct, including 24 staying the proceeding until a child custody proceeding is 25 commenced in a court having jurisdiction under ss.
26 61.514-61.516.

27 (3) If a court dismisses a petition or stays a 28 proceeding because it declines to exercise its jurisdiction
29 under subsection (1), it shall assess against the party
30 seeking to invoke its jurisdiction necessary and reasonable 31 expenses, including costs, communication expenses, attorney's

1 fees, investigative fees, expenses for witnesses, travel
2 expenses, and expenses for child care during the course of the 3 proceedings, unless the party from whom fees are sought 4 establishes that the assessment would be clearly 5 inappropriate. The court may not assess fees, costs, or 6 expenses against this state unless authorized by law other 7 than this part.

8 61.522 Information to be submitted to the court.--

9 (1) Subject to Florida law providing for the 10 confidentiality of procedures, addresses, and other 11 identifying information in a child custody proceeding, each 12 party, in its first pleading or in an attached affidavit, 13 shall give information, if reasonably ascertainable, under 14 oath as to the child's present address or whereabouts, the 15 places where the child has lived during the last 5 years, and 16 the names and present addresses of the persons with whom the 17 child has lived during that period. The pleading or affidavit 18 must state whether the party:

19 (a) Has participated, as a party or witness or in any 20 other capacity, in any other proceeding concerning the custody 21 of or visitation with the child and, if so, identify the 22 court, the case number, and the date of the child custody 23 determination, if any;

24 (b) Knows of any proceeding that could affect the 25 current proceeding, including proceedings for enforcement and 26 proceedings relating to domestic violence, protective orders, 27 termination of parental rights, and adoptions and, if so, 28 identify the court, the case number, and the nature of the 29 proceeding; and

30 (c) Knows the names and addresses of any person not a 31 party to the proceeding who has physical custody of the child

1 or claims rights of legal custody or physical custody of, or 2 visitation with, the child and, if so, the names and addresses 3 of those persons.

4 (2) If the information required by subsection (1) is 5 not furnished, the court, upon motion of a party or its own 6 motion, may stay the proceeding until the information is 7 furnished.

8 (3) If the declaration as to any of the items 9 described in paragraphs (1)(a)-(c) is in the affirmative, the 10 declarant shall give additional information under oath as 11 required by the court. The court may examine the parties under 12 oath as to details of the information furnished and other 13 matters pertinent to the court's jurisdiction and the 14 disposition of the case.

15 (4) Each party has a continuing duty to inform the 16 court of any proceeding in this or any other state which could 17 affect the current proceeding.

18 61.523 Appearance of parties and child.--

19 (1) In a child custody proceeding in this state, the 20 court may order a party to the proceeding who is in this state 21 to appear before the court in person with or without the 22 child. The court may order any person who is in this state and 23 who has physical custody or control of the child to appear in 24 person with the child.

25 (2) If a party to a child custody proceeding whose 26 presence is desired by the court is outside this state, the 27 court may order that a notice given pursuant to s. 61.509
28 include a statement directing the party to appear in person
29 with or without the child and informing the party that failure
30 to appear may result in a decision adverse to the party.

31

1 (3) The court may enter any orders necessary to ensure 2 the safety of the child and of any person ordered to appear 3 under this section.

4 (4) If a party to a child custody proceeding who is 5 outside this state is directed to appear under subsection (2) 6 or desires to appear in person before the court with or 7 without the child, the court may require another party to pay 8 reasonable and necessary travel and other expenses of the 9 party so appearing and of the child.

10 61.524 Definitions.--As used in ss. 61.524-61.540, the 11 term:

12 (1) "Petitioner" means a person who seeks enforcement
13 of an order for return of a child under the Hague Convention 14 on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction or 15 enforcement of a child custody determination.

16 (2) "Respondent" means a person against whom a 17 proceeding has been commenced for enforcement of an order for 18 return of a child under the Hague Convention on the Civil 19 Aspects of International Child Abduction or enforcement of a 20 child custody determination.

21 61.525 Enforcement under the Hague Convention.--Under 22 this part, a court of this state may enforce an order for the 23 return of a child made under the Hague Convention on the Civil 24 Aspects of International Child Abduction as if it were a child 25 custody determination.

26 61.526 Duty to enforce.--

27 (1) A court of this state shall recognize and enforce 28 a child custody determination of a court of another state if 29 the latter court exercised jurisdiction in substantial 30 conformity with this part or the determination was made under 31 factual circumstances meeting the jurisdictional standards of

1 this part and the determination has not been modified in 2 accordance with this part.

3 (2) A court of this state may use any remedy available
4 under other laws of this state to enforce a child custody
5 determination made by a court of another state. The remedies 6 provided by ss. 61.524-61.540 are cumulative and do not affect 7 the availability of other remedies to enforce a child custody
8 determination.

9 61.527 Temporary visitation.--

10 (1) A court of this state which does not have 11 jurisdiction to modify a child custody determination may issue 12 a temporary order enforcing:

13 (a) A visitation schedule made by a court of another 14 state; or

15 (b) The visitation provisions of a child custody
16 determination of another state which does not provide for a 17 specific visitation schedule.

18 (2) If a court of this state makes an order under 19 paragraph (1)(b), it shall specify in the order a period that 20 it considers adequate to allow the petitioner to obtain an 21 order from a court having jurisdiction under the criteria
22 specified in ss. 61.514-61.523. The order remains in effect
23 until an order is obtained from the other court or the period
24 expires.

25 61.528 Registration of child custody determination.--

26 (1) A child custody determination issued by a court of 27 another state may be registered in this state, with or without 28 a simultaneous request for enforcement, by sending to the 29 circuit court of the county where the petitioner or respondent 30 resides or where a simultaneous request for enforcement is 31 sought:

1 (a) A letter or other document requesting 2 registration;

3 (b) Two copies, including one certified copy, of the 4 determination sought to be registered and a statement under 5 penalty of perjury that, to the best of the knowledge and 6 belief of the person seeking registration, the order has not 7 been modified; and

8 (c) Except as otherwise provided in s. 61.522, the 9 name and address of the person seeking registration and any 10 parent or person acting as a parent who has been awarded 11 custody or visitation in the child custody determination 12 sought to be registered.

13 (2) On receipt of the documents required by subsection 14 (1), the registering court shall:

15 (a) Cause the determination to be filed as a foreign 16 judgment, together with one copy of any accompanying documents 17 and information, regardless of their form; and

18 (b) Serve notice upon the persons named pursuant to 19 paragraph (1)(c) and provide them with an opportunity to 20 contest the registration in accordance with this section.

21 (3) The notice required by paragraph (2)(b) must state 22 that:

23 (a) A registered determination is enforceable as of 24 the date of the registration in the same manner as a 25 determination issued by a court of this state;

26 (b) A hearing to contest the validity of the 27 registered determination must be requested within 20 days 28 after service of notice; and

29 (c) Failure to contest the registration will result in 30 confirmation of the child custody determination and preclude 31

1 further contest of that determination with respect to any 2 matter that could have been asserted.

3 (4) A person seeking to contest the validity of a 4 registered order must request a hearing within 20 days after 5 service of the notice. At that hearing, the court shall 6 confirm the registered order unless the person contesting 7 registration establishes that:

8 (a) The issuing court did not have jurisdiction under 9 ss. 61.514-61.523;

10 (b) The child custody determination sought to be 11 registered has been vacated, stayed, or modified by a court 12 having jurisdiction to do so under ss. 61.514-61.523; or

13 (c) The person contesting registration was entitled to 14 notice, but notice was not given in accordance with the 15 standards of s. 61.509 in the proceedings before the court
16 that issued the order for which registration is sought.

17 (5) If a timely request for a hearing to contest the 18 validity of the registration is not made, the registration is 19 confirmed as a matter of law and the person requesting 20 registration and all persons served must be notified of the 21 confirmation.

22 (6) Confirmation of a registered order, whether by 23 operation of law or after notice and hearing, precludes 24 further contest of the order with respect to any matter that 25 could have been asserted at the time of registration.

26 61.529 Enforcement of registered determination.--

27 (1) A court of this state may grant any relief
28 normally available under the laws of this state to enforce a 29 registered child custody determination made by a court of 30 another state.

31

1 (2) A court of this state shall recognize and enforce
2 but may not modify, except in accordance with ss.
3 61.514-61.523, a registered child custody determination of 4 another state.

5 61.530 Simultaneous proceedings.--If a proceeding for 6 enforcement under ss. 61.524-61.540 is commenced in a court of 7 this state and the court determines that a proceeding to 8 modify the determination is pending in a court of another 9 state having jurisdiction to modify the determination under 10 ss. 61.514-61.523, the enforcing court shall immediately 11 communicate with the modifying court. The proceeding for 12 enforcement continues unless the enforcing court, after 13 consultation with the modifying court, stays or dismisses the 14 proceeding.

15 61.531 Expedited enforcement of child custody
16 determination.--

17 (1) A petition under ss. 61.524-61.540 must be 18 verified. Certified copies of all orders sought to be enforced 19 and of any order confirming registration must be attached to 20 the petition. A copy of a certified copy of an order may be 21 attached instead of the original.

22 (2) A petition for enforcement of a child custody
23 determination must state:

24 (a) Whether the court that issued the determination 25 identified the jurisdictional basis it relied upon in 26 exercising jurisdiction and, if so, specify the basis;

27 (b) Whether the determination for which enforcement is 28 sought has been vacated, stayed, or modified by a court whose 29 decision must be enforced under this part and, if so, identify 30 the court, the case number, and the nature of the proceeding; 31

1 (c) Whether any proceeding has been commenced that 2 could affect the current proceeding, including proceedings
3 relating to domestic violence, protective orders, termination 4 of parental rights, and adoptions and, if so, identify the 5 court, the case number, and the nature of the proceeding;

6 (d) The present physical address of the child and the 7 respondent, if known;

8 (e) Whether relief in addition to the immediate 9 physical custody of the child and attorney's fees is sought, 10 including a request for assistance from law enforcement 11 officers and, if so, the relief sought; and

12 (f) If the child custody determination has been 13 registered and confirmed under s. 61.528, the date and place 14 of registration.

15 (3) Upon the filing of a petition, the court shall 16 issue an order directing the respondent to appear in person
17 with or without the child at a hearing and may enter any order 18 necessary to ensure the safety of the parties and the child.
19 The hearing must be held on the next judicial day after 20 service of the order unless that date is impossible. In that 21 event, the court shall hold the hearing on the first judicial 22 day possible. The court may extend the date of the hearing at 23 the request of the petitioner.

24 (4) An order issued under subsection (3) must state
25 the time and place of the hearing and advise the respondent
26 that at the hearing the court will order that the petitioner 27 may take immediate physical custody of the child and the 28 payment of fees, costs, and expenses under s. 61.535 and may 29 schedule a hearing to determine whether further relief is 30 appropriate, unless the respondent appears and establishes 31 that:

1 (a) The child custody determination has not been
2 registered and confirmed under s. 61.528 and that:

3 1. The issuing court did not have jurisdiction under 4 ss. 61.514-61.523;

5 2. The child custody determination for which 6 enforcement is sought has been vacated, stayed, or modified by 7 a court of a state having jurisdiction to do so under ss.
8 61.514-61.523; or

9 3. The respondent was entitled to notice, but notice
10 was not given in accordance with the standards of s. 61.509 in 11 the proceedings before the court that issued the order for 12 which enforcement is sought; or

13 (b) The child custody determination for which 14 enforcement is sought was registered and confirmed under s.
15 61.528, but has been vacated, stayed, or modified by a court
16 of a state having jurisdiction to do so under ss.
17 61.514-61.523.

18 61.532 Service of petition and order.--Except as 19 otherwise provided in s. 61.534, the petition and order must 20 be served by any method authorized by the laws of this state 21 upon the respondent and any person who has physical custody of 22 the child.

23 61.533 Hearing and order.--

24 (1) Unless the court enters a temporary emergency 25 order under s. 61.517, upon a finding that a petitioner is 26 entitled to immediate physical custody of the child, the court
27 shall order that the petitioner may take immediate physical 28 custody of the child unless the respondent establishes that:

29 (a) The child custody determination has not been 30 registered and confirmed under s. 61.528 and that:

31

1 1. The issuing court did not have jurisdiction under 2 ss. 61.514-61.523;

3 2. The child custody determination for which
4 enforcement is sought has been vacated, stayed, or modified by 5 a court of a state having jurisdiction to do so under ss.
6 61.514-61.523; or

7 3. The respondent was entitled to notice, but notice
8 was not given in accordance with the standards of s. 61.509 in 9 the proceedings before the court that issued the order for 10 which enforcement is sought; or

11 (b) The child custody determination for which 12 enforcement is sought was registered and confirmed under s.
13 61.528, but has been vacated, stayed, or modified by a court
14 of a state having jurisdiction to do so under ss.
15 61.514-61.523.

16 (2) The court shall award the fees, costs, and 17 expenses authorized under s. 61.535 and may grant additional 18 relief, including a request for the assistance of law
19 enforcement officers, and set a further hearing to determine 20 whether additional relief is appropriate.

21 (3) If a party called to testify refuses to answer on 22 the ground that the testimony may be self-incriminating, the 23 court may draw an adverse inference from the refusal.

24 (4) A privilege against disclosure of communications 25 between spouses and a defense of immunity based on the 26 relationship of husband and wife or parent and child may not 27 be invoked in a proceeding under ss. 61.524-61.540.

28 61.534 Warrant to take physical custody of child.--

29 (1) Upon the filing of a petition seeking enforcement 30 of a child custody determination, the petitioner may file a 31 verified application for the issuance of a warrant to take

1 physical custody of the child if the child is likely to 2 imminently suffer serious physical harm or removal from this 3 state.

4 (2) If the court, upon the testimony of the petitioner
5 or other witness, finds that the child is likely to imminently 6 suffer serious physical harm or removal from this state, it 7 may issue a warrant to take physical custody of the child. The 8 petition must be heard on the next judicial day after the 9 warrant is executed unless that date is impossible. In that 10 event, the court shall hold the hearing on the first judicial 11 day possible. The application for the warrant must include the 12 statements required by s. 61.531(2).

13 (3) A warrant to take physical custody of a child 14 must:

15 (a) Recite the facts upon which a conclusion of 16 imminent serious physical harm or removal from the 17 jurisdiction is based;

18 (b) Direct law enforcement officers to take physical 19 custody of the child immediately; and

20 (c) Provide for the placement of the child pending 21 final relief.

22 (4) The respondent must be served with the petition, 23 warrant, and order immediately after the child is taken into 24 physical custody.

25 (5) A warrant to take physical custody of a child is 26 enforceable throughout this state. If the court finds on the 27 basis of the testimony of the petitioner or other witness that 28 a less intrusive remedy is not effective, it may authorize law 29 enforcement officers to enter private property to take 30 physical custody of the child. If required by exigent
31

1 circumstances of the case, the court may authorize law
2 enforcement officers to make a forcible entry at any hour.

3 (6) The court may impose conditions upon placement of 4 a child to ensure the appearance of the child and the child's 5 custodian.

6 61.535 Costs, fees, and expenses.--

7 (1) So long as the court has personal jurisdiction
8 over the party against whom the expenses are being assessed,
9 the court shall award the prevailing party, including a state, 10 necessary and reasonable expenses incurred by or on behalf of 11 the party, including costs, communication expenses, attorney's
12 fees, investigative fees, expenses for witnesses, travel
13 expenses, and expenses for child care during the course of the 14 proceedings, unless the party from whom fees or expenses are 15 sought establishes that the award would be clearly 16 inappropriate.

17 (2) The court may not assess fees, costs, or expenses
18 against a state unless authorized by law other than this part.

19 61.536 Recognition and enforcement.--A court of this 20 state shall accord full faith and credit to an order issued by 21 another state and consistent with this part which enforces a 22 child custody determination by a court of another state unless 23 the order has been vacated, stayed, or modified by a court 24 having jurisdiction to do so under ss. 61.514-61.523.

25 61.537 Appeals.--An appeal may be taken from a final 26 order in a proceeding under ss. 61.524-61.640 in accordance 27 with expedited appellate procedures in other civil cases.
28 Unless the court enters a temporary emergency order under s.
29 61.517, the enforcing court may not stay an order enforcing a 30 child custody determination pending appeal.

31 61.538 Role of state attorney.--

1 (1) In a case arising under this part or involving the 2 Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child
3 Abduction, the state attorney may take any lawful action, 4 including resort to a proceeding under ss. 61.524-61.540 or 5 any other available civil proceeding, to locate a child, 6 obtain the return of a child, or enforce a child custody 7 determination, if there is:

8 (a) An existing child custody determination;

9 (b) A request to do so from a court in a pending child 10 custody proceeding;

11 (c) A reasonable belief that a criminal statute has 12 been violated; or

13 (d) A reasonable belief that the child has been 14 wrongfully removed or retained in violation of the Hague
15 Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child
16 Abduction.

17 (2) A state attorney acting under this section acts on 18 behalf of the court and may not represent any party.

19 61.539 Role of law enforcement officers.--At the 20 request of a state attorney acting under s. 61.538, a law
21 enforcement officer may take any lawful action reasonably
22 necessary to locate a child or a party and assist a state 23 attorney with responsibilities under s. 61.538.

24 61.540 Costs and expenses.--The court may assess 25 against the nonprevailing party all direct expenses and costs
26 incurred by the state attorney and law enforcement officers 27 under s. 61.538 or s. 61.539 so long as the court has personal 28 jurisdiction over the nonprevailing party.

29 61.541 Application and construction.--In applying and 30 construing this part, consideration must be given to the need 31

1 to promote uniformity of the law with respect to its subject
2 matter among states that enact it.

3 61.542 Transitional provision.--A motion or other 4 request for relief made in a child custody proceeding or to 5 enforce a child custody determination that was commenced
6 before the effective date of this part is governed by the law
7 in effect at the time the motion or other request was made.

8 Section 6. Paragraph (d) of subsection (3), subsection
9 (4), and paragraph (a) of subsection (7) of section 741.30, 10 Florida Statutes, are amended to read:

11 741.30 Domestic violence; injunction; powers and 12 duties of court and clerk; petition; notice and hearing;
13 temporary injunction; issuance of injunction; statewide
14 verification system; enforcement.--

15 (3)

16 (d) If the sworn petition seeks to determine issues of 17 custody or visitation with regard to the minor child or 18 children of the parties, the sworn petition shall be 19 accompanied by or shall incorporate the allegations required
20 by s. 61.522 ~~s. 61.132~~ of the Uniform Child Custody
21 Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act.

22 (4) Upon the filing of the petition, the court shall 23 set a hearing to be held at the earliest possible time. The 24 respondent shall be personally served with a copy of the 25 petition, financial affidavit, uniform child custody
26 jurisdiction and enforcement act affidavit, if any, notice of 27 hearing, and temporary injunction, if any, prior to the 28 hearing.

29 (7)(a)1. The clerk of the court shall furnish a copy
30 of the petition, financial affidavit, uniform child custody
31 jurisdiction and enforcement act affidavit, if any, notice of

1 hearing, and temporary injunction, if any, to the sheriff or a
2 law enforcement agency of the county where the respondent 3 resides or can be found, who shall serve it upon the 4 respondent as soon thereafter as possible on any day of the 5 week and at any time of the day or night. The clerk of the 6 court shall be responsible for furnishing to the sheriff such 7 information on the respondent's physical description and 8 location as is required by the department to comply with the 9 verification procedures set forth in this section.

10 Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, 11 the chief judge of each circuit, in consultation with the 12 appropriate sheriff, may authorize a law enforcement agency
13 within the jurisdiction to effect service. A law enforcement 14 agency serving injunctions pursuant to this section shall use 15 service and verification procedures consistent with those of 16 the sheriff.

17 2. When an injunction is issued, if the petitioner
18 requests the assistance of a law enforcement agency, the court
19 may order that an officer from the appropriate law enforcement 20 agency accompany the petitioner and assist in placing the 21 petitioner in possession of the dwelling or residence, or 22 otherwise assist in the execution or service of the 23 injunction. A law enforcement officer shall accept a copy of 24 an injunction for protection against domestic violence, 25 certified by the clerk of the court, from the petitioner and 26 immediately serve it upon a respondent who has been located 27 but not yet served.

28 3. All orders issued, changed, continued, extended, or 29 vacated subsequent to the original service of documents 30 enumerated under subparagraph 1., shall be certified by the 31 clerk of the court and delivered to the parties at the time of

1 the entry of the order. The parties may acknowledge receipt
2 of such order in writing on the face of the original order.
3 In the event a party fails or refuses to acknowledge the 4 receipt of a certified copy of an order, the clerk shall note
5 on the original order that service was effected. If delivery
6 at the hearing is not possible, the clerk shall mail certified 7 copies of the order to the parties at the last known address
8 of each party. Service by mail is complete upon mailing.
9 When an order is served pursuant to this subsection, the clerk 10 shall prepare a written certification to be placed in the 11 court file specifying the time, date, and method of service 12 and shall notify the sheriff.

13

14 If the respondent has been served previously with the 15 temporary injunction and has failed to appear at the initial 16 hearing on the temporary injunction, any subsequent petition 17 for injunction seeking an extension of time may be served on 18 the respondent by the clerk of the court by certified mail in 19 lieu of personal service by a law enforcement officer.
