A bill to be entitled

An act relating to Orange County; providing for the relief of Maria Garcia, as legal guardian of Delfina Benjumea; providing for an appropriation to compensate her for injuries and damages sustained by Delfina Benjumea as a result of the negligence of the Orange County Sheriff's Office; providing for a reversionary interest to the Orange County Sheriff's Office; providing legislative intent with respect to expenditures; providing an effective date.

WHEREAS, on July 11, 1996, Delfina Benjumea, the 82-year-old mother of Maria Garcia, had come to the Orlando area from Colombia to visit her family, and

WHEREAS, while in Orlando, Delfina Benjumea participated in a senior-citizen program run by the City of Orlando, and

WHEREAS, on July 11, 1996, a fellow participant in the program gave Delfina Benjumea a ride from the center at which the senior-citizen program was conducted and mistakenly left her at an apartment complex other than the one in which her daughter resided, and

WHEREAS, in an effort to walk to her daughter's home, Delfina Benjumea became lost, and an Orange County sheriff's deputy undertook to drive her to adult protective services, and

WHEREAS, on the way to their destination, the deputy rear-ended an automobile at such a speed as to cause airbags in the sheriff's vehicle to deploy, and

WHEREAS, after the accident, Delfina Benjumea was 1 evaluated at a hospital for complaints of neck and back pain and released, but, during the next several weeks, she experienced increased headaches, dizziness, and confusion, and WHEREAS, on August 3, 1996, Maria Garcia found her mother lying in the grass in front of her apartment complex, and Delfina Benjumea was taken to Florida Hospital South, where a CT Scan of the brain revealed very large bilateral subacute subdural hematomas, and WHEREAS, surgical procedures were performed to open the skull and relieve the hematomas, and 12

WHEREAS, Delfina Benjumea was released from the hospital 3 days later but returned there in September 1996, because of coagulation and clotting, and

WHEREAS, at a trial based on allegations that the aforementioned accident had caused brain injury, a neurologist testified that Delfina Benjumea had suffered a traumatic brain injury with residual cognitive and behavioral impairment and further concluded that Delfina Benjumea is totally incapacitated and is in need of constant supervision, and

WHEREAS, a three-person medical panel, in connection with Delfina Benjumea's guardianship proceeding in 1997, issued findings consistent with the doctor's opinion, and

WHEREAS, at trial, a jury determined that the sheriff was 100 percent at fault in the accident, and the jury awarded Delfina Benjumea damages totalling $384,433, including $87,745 for past medical expenses, $172,000 for future medical expenses, and $124,688 for past and future pain and suffering, and
