Senator Latvala moved the following amendment:

Senate Amendment

On page 10, line 29, through page 11, line 2, delete those lines and insert: in consultation with the Chief Financial Officer.

Pursuant to Art. IV, s. (6)(a) of the State Constitution, before entering upon the duties of office, a director must obtain the affirmative written approval of all three members of the Cabinet. Each director will continue to serve at the pleasure of the Governor and all three members of the Cabinet.
If, at any time after a director enters upon the duties of office, the Governor or any member of the Cabinet so requests, in writing, for any reason, the Governor shall call for a vote, within 30 days, on whether the subject director will continue in office. If a director fails to obtain the affirmative vote of the Governor and all three members of the Cabinet, the subject director is removed from office, the office becomes vacant on the date specified in the Governor's order, and the Governor shall appoint a replacement director
