A bill to be entitled

An act relating to federal aid; amending s. 339.12, F.S.; providing that certain counties levying the local option ninth-cent fuel tax shall receive preference points to calculate eligibility for receipt of any transportation grant for which the county applies; providing an effective date.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

Section 1. Subsection (10) is added to section 339.12, Florida Statutes, to read:

339.12 Aid and contributions by governmental entities for department projects; federal aid.--

(10) Any county with a population greater than 50,000 which levies the local option ninth-cent fuel tax pursuant to ss. 206.41(1)(d) and 206.87(1)(b) and which dedicates 50 percent or more of its one-penny local option sales tax for improvements to the State Transportation System or to local projects directly upgrading the State Transportation System within the county's boundaries shall receive preference points equaling 10 percent of the total points used to calculate eligibility for receipt of any transportation grant for which said county applies.

Section 2. This act shall take effect July 1, 2002.
