House Concurrent Resolution

A concurrent resolution renumbering current Joint Rule 8 and creating a new Joint Rule 8 of the Joint Rules of the Legislature relating to review of exemptions from sales and use tax and exclusions of sales of services from such taxation.

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Florida, the Senate Concurring:

That current Joint Rule 8 of the Joint Rules of the Legislature is renumbered as Joint Rule 9 and a new Joint Rule 8 is created to read:

JOINT RULE EIGHTSALES AND USE TAX REVIEW; EXEMPTIONS AND EXCLUSIONS8.1--Review of Sales and Use Tax Exemptions and Exclusions

Every 5 years beginning in 2005, each house of the Legislature shall review the retention, modification, or repeal of exemptions to the sales and use tax and all exclusions of sales of services from such taxation. Each house of the Legislature must introduce committee bills presenting for retention, modification, or repeal all sales and use tax exemptions and may introduce committee bills imposing tax on sales of services. Each bill so introduced must be submitted to a vote of the members of each house of the Legislature during the session in which introduced. Each committee reviewing sales and use tax exemptions and exclusions of sales of services from such taxation may hold meetings to consider bills proposed by
