subsection (1), and those reports involve adverse incidents, the Department of Health shall suspend the physician's license and initiate an emergency investigation and the Board of Osteopaths Medicine shall conduct an emergency probable cause hearing to determine whether the physician should be disciplined for a violation of s. 459.015(1)(x) or any other relevant provision of law. For the purposes of this subsection, an "adverse incident" means an event that results in:	Amendment No. (for drafter's use only)
Representative Ryan offered the following: Substitute Amendment for Amendment (492799) Between line(s) 709 and 710, insert: (3) No later than 20 days after an osteopathic physician has, within a 48-month period, made three reports as required h subsection (1), and those reports involve adverse incidents, th Department of Health shall suspend the physician's license and initiate an emergency investigation and the Board of Osteopath: Medicine shall conduct an emergency probable cause hearing to determine whether the physician should be disciplined for a violation of s. 459.015(1)(x) or any other relevant provision of law. For the purposes of this subsection, an "adverse incident" means an event that results in:	CHAMBER ACTION
Substitute Amendment for Amendment (492799) Between line(s) 709 and 710, insert: (3) No later than 20 days after an osteopathic physician has, within a 48-month period, made three reports as required k subsection (1), and those reports involve adverse incidents, th Department of Health shall suspend the physician's license and initiate an emergency investigation and the Board of Osteopath: Medicine shall conduct an emergency probable cause hearing to determine whether the physician should be disciplined for a violation of s. 459.015(1)(x) or any other relevant provision of law. For the purposes of this subsection, an "adverse incident" means an event that results in:	Senate House
Substitute Amendment for Amendment (492799) Between line(s) 709 and 710, insert: (3) No later than 20 days after an osteopathic physician has, within a 48-month period, made three reports as required k subsection (1), and those reports involve adverse incidents, th Department of Health shall suspend the physician's license and initiate an emergency investigation and the Board of Osteopath: Medicine shall conduct an emergency probable cause hearing to determine whether the physician should be disciplined for a violation of s. 459.015(1)(x) or any other relevant provision of law. For the purposes of this subsection, an "adverse incident" means an event that results in:	•
Substitute Amendment for Amendment (492799) Between line(s) 709 and 710, insert: (3) No later than 20 days after an osteopathic physician has, within a 48-month period, made three reports as required k subsection (1), and those reports involve adverse incidents, th Department of Health shall suspend the physician's license and initiate an emergency investigation and the Board of Osteopath: Medicine shall conduct an emergency probable cause hearing to determine whether the physician should be disciplined for a violation of s. 459.015(1)(x) or any other relevant provision of law. For the purposes of this subsection, an "adverse incident" means an event that results in:
Substitute Amendment for Amendment (492799) Between line(s) 709 and 710, insert: (3) No later than 20 days after an osteopathic physician has, within a 48-month period, made three reports as required k subsection (1), and those reports involve adverse incidents, th Department of Health shall suspend the physician's license and initiate an emergency investigation and the Board of Osteopath: Medicine shall conduct an emergency probable cause hearing to determine whether the physician should be disciplined for a violation of s. 459.015(1)(x) or any other relevant provision of law. For the purposes of this subsection, an "adverse incident" means an event that results in:
Substitute Amendment for Amendment (492799) Between line(s) 709 and 710, insert: (3) No later than 20 days after an osteopathic physician has, within a 48-month period, made three reports as required k subsection (1), and those reports involve adverse incidents, th Department of Health shall suspend the physician's license and initiate an emergency investigation and the Board of Osteopath: Medicine shall conduct an emergency probable cause hearing to determine whether the physician should be disciplined for a violation of s. 459.015(1)(x) or any other relevant provision of law. For the purposes of this subsection, an "adverse incident" means an event that results in:
Substitute Amendment for Amendment (492799) Between line(s) 709 and 710, insert: (3) No later than 20 days after an osteopathic physician has, within a 48-month period, made three reports as required k subsection (1), and those reports involve adverse incidents, th Department of Health shall suspend the physician's license and initiate an emergency investigation and the Board of Osteopath: Medicine shall conduct an emergency probable cause hearing to determine whether the physician should be disciplined for a violation of s. 459.015(1)(x) or any other relevant provision of law. For the purposes of this subsection, an "adverse incident"
Substitute Amendment for Amendment (492799) Between line(s) 709 and 710, insert: (3) No later than 20 days after an osteopathic physician has, within a 48-month period, made three reports as required k subsection (1), and those reports involve adverse incidents, th Department of Health shall suspend the physician's license and initiate an emergency investigation and the Board of Osteopath: Medicine shall conduct an emergency probable cause hearing to determine whether the physician should be disciplined for a violation of s. 459.015(1)(x) or any other relevant provision of law. For the purposes of this subsection, an "adverse incident" means an event that results in:
Substitute Amendment for Amendment (492799) Between line(s) 709 and 710, insert: (3) No later than 20 days after an osteopathic physician has, within a 48-month period, made three reports as required k subsection (1), and those reports involve adverse incidents, th Department of Health shall suspend the physician's license and initiate an emergency investigation and the Board of Osteopath: Medicine shall conduct an emergency probable cause hearing to determine whether the physician should be disciplined for a violation of s. 459.015(1)(x) or any other relevant provision of law. For the purposes of this subsection, an "adverse incident" means an event that results in:
Substitute Amendment for Amendment (492799) Between line(s) 709 and 710, insert: (3) No later than 20 days after an osteopathic physician has, within a 48-month period, made three reports as required k subsection (1), and those reports involve adverse incidents, th Department of Health shall suspend the physician's license and initiate an emergency investigation and the Board of Osteopath: Medicine shall conduct an emergency probable cause hearing to determine whether the physician should be disciplined for a violation of s. 459.015(1)(x) or any other relevant provision of law. For the purposes of this subsection, an "adverse incident" means an event that results in:
Substitute Amendment for Amendment (492799) Between line(s) 709 and 710, insert: (3) No later than 20 days after an osteopathic physician has, within a 48-month period, made three reports as required k subsection (1), and those reports involve adverse incidents, th Department of Health shall suspend the physician's license and initiate an emergency investigation and the Board of Osteopath: Medicine shall conduct an emergency probable cause hearing to determine whether the physician should be disciplined for a violation of s. 459.015(1)(x) or any other relevant provision of law. For the purposes of this subsection, an "adverse incident" means an event that results in:
Substitute Amendment for Amendment (492799) Between line(s) 709 and 710, insert: (3) No later than 20 days after an osteopathic physician has, within a 48-month period, made three reports as required k subsection (1), and those reports involve adverse incidents, th Department of Health shall suspend the physician's license and initiate an emergency investigation and the Board of Osteopath: Medicine shall conduct an emergency probable cause hearing to determine whether the physician should be disciplined for a violation of s. 459.015(1)(x) or any other relevant provision of law. For the purposes of this subsection, an "adverse incident"
Between line(s) 709 and 710, insert: (3) No later than 20 days after an osteopathic physician has, within a 48-month period, made three reports as required by subsection (1), and those reports involve adverse incidents, the Department of Health shall suspend the physician's license and initiate an emergency investigation and the Board of Osteopaths Medicine shall conduct an emergency probable cause hearing to determine whether the physician should be disciplined for a violation of s. 459.015(1)(x) or any other relevant provision of law. For the purposes of this subsection, an "adverse incident" means an event that results in:	Representative Ryan offered the following:
Between line(s) 709 and 710, insert: (3) No later than 20 days after an osteopathic physician has, within a 48-month period, made three reports as required by subsection (1), and those reports involve adverse incidents, the Department of Health shall suspend the physician's license and initiate an emergency investigation and the Board of Osteopaths Medicine shall conduct an emergency probable cause hearing to determine whether the physician should be disciplined for a violation of s. 459.015(1)(x) or any other relevant provision of law. For the purposes of this subsection, an "adverse incident" means an event that results in:
(3) No later than 20 days after an osteopathic physician has, within a 48-month period, made three reports as required a subsection (1), and those reports involve adverse incidents, the Department of Health shall suspend the physician's license and initiate an emergency investigation and the Board of Osteopaths Medicine shall conduct an emergency probable cause hearing to determine whether the physician should be disciplined for a violation of s. 459.015(1)(x) or any other relevant provision of law. For the purposes of this subsection, an "adverse incident" means an event that results in:	Substitute Amendment for Amendment (492799)
has, within a 48-month period, made three reports as required a subsection (1), and those reports involve adverse incidents, the Department of Health shall suspend the physician's license and initiate an emergency investigation and the Board of Osteopaths Medicine shall conduct an emergency probable cause hearing to determine whether the physician should be disciplined for a violation of s. 459.015(1)(x) or any other relevant provision of law. For the purposes of this subsection, an "adverse incident" means an event that results in:	Between line(s) 709 and 710, insert:
subsection (1), and those reports involve adverse incidents, the Department of Health shall suspend the physician's license and initiate an emergency investigation and the Board of Osteopaths Medicine shall conduct an emergency probable cause hearing to determine whether the physician should be disciplined for a violation of s. 459.015(1)(x) or any other relevant provision of law. For the purposes of this subsection, an "adverse incident" means an event that results in:	(3) No later than 20 days after an osteopathic physician
Department of Health shall suspend the physician's license and initiate an emergency investigation and the Board of Osteopaths Medicine shall conduct an emergency probable cause hearing to determine whether the physician should be disciplined for a violation of s. 459.015(1)(x) or any other relevant provision of law. For the purposes of this subsection, an "adverse incident" means an event that results in:	has, within a 48-month period, made three reports as required b initiate an emergency investigation and the Board of Osteopaths Medicine shall conduct an emergency probable cause hearing to determine whether the physician should be disciplined for a violation of s. 459.015(1)(x) or any other relevant provision of law. For the purposes of this subsection, an "adverse incident" means an event that results in:	subsection (1), and those reports involve adverse incidents, th
Medicine shall conduct an emergency probable cause hearing to determine whether the physician should be disciplined for a violation of s. 459.015(1)(x) or any other relevant provision of law. For the purposes of this subsection, an "adverse incident" means an event that results in:	Department of Health shall suspend the physician's license and determine whether the physician should be disciplined for a violation of s. $459.015(1)(x)$ or any other relevant provision of law. For the purposes of this subsection, an "adverse incident" means an event that results in:	initiate an emergency investigation and the Board of Osteopathi violation of s. 459.015(1)(x) or any other relevant provision of law. For the purposes of this subsection, an "adverse incident" means an event that results in:	Medicine shall conduct an emergency probable cause hearing to
law. For the purposes of this subsection, an "adverse incident" means an event that results in:	determine whether the physician should be disciplined for a means an event that results in:	violation of s. $459.015(1)(x)$ or any other relevant provision o
	law. For the purposes of this subsection, an "adverse incident"
(a) The death of a patient;	means an event that results in:
	(a) The death of a patient;
(b) Brain or spinal damage to a patient;

732507

Page 1 of 2

HOUSE AMENDMENT

Bill No.HB 1713

Amendment No. (for drafter's use only)

27	(c) The performance of a surgical procedure on the wrong
28	patient;
29	(d) The performance of a wrong-site surgical procedure;
30	(e) The performance of a surgical procedure that is
31	medically unnecessary or otherwise unrelated to the patient's
32	diagnosis or medical condition;
33	(f) The surgical repair of damage to a patient resulting
33 34	(f) The surgical repair of damage to a patient resulting from a planned surgical procedure, which damage is not a
34	from a planned surgical procedure, which damage is not a
34 35	from a planned surgical procedure, which damage is not a recognized specific risk as disclosed to the patient and