Representative Barreiro offered the following:

Amendment (with title amendment)

Between lines 136 and 137, insert:

A child ordered committed into a specific low-risk residential program or facility may not be held in secure detention for more than 5 days after the order of commitment, not including Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays, while awaiting placement. A child ordered committed to a specific moderate-risk residential program or facility may not be held in secure detention for more than 15 days after the order of commitment, not including Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays, while awaiting placement. A child awaiting placement into a specific low-risk or moderate-risk residential program or facility must meet the detention admission criteria provided in s. 985.215. A child ordered committed into a specific high-risk residential or maximum-risk residential program or facility shall be held in

Amendment No. (for drafter's use only)

28 secure detention until the placement is accomplished. For a 29 child ordered committed to a high-risk residential or maximum-30 risk residential program or facility, the department may notify 31 the dispositional judge of alternative placements of the same 32 risk level, as space becomes available, which could be 33 accomplished prior to entry of the child into the court-ordered
 34 program or facility. With respect to any court-specified 35 placement, the court may not select a program or facility that 36 is not under contract with the department. If the court finds
 37 that the planned vacancies at the program or facility specified 38 by the court are insufficient to allow for the placement of the 39 child within 45 days after the commitment order, the court must 40 select a program or facility of the same commitment risk level
 41 from at least three alternative placements provided by the 42 department.
