A bill to be entitled An act relating to credit reports; requiring consumer reporting agencies to provide a copy of a consumer report to a person in his or her birth month under certain circumstances; requiring report explanations; providing an effective date.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

Section 1. Any consumer reporting agency, as defined in s. 603(f) of the Fair Credit Reporting Act, shall provide to any person, free of charge and without regard to any failure to extend credit to that person, a consumer report in the month of his or her birth including explanations of the codes contained in such report if such agency has released that individual's credit information to any entity doing business in this state within the previous calendar year.

Section 2. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law.
