A bill to be entitled An act relating to state purchasing agreements and construction contracts; providing a popular name; requiring parties to certain state contracts or agreements to remit a specified portion of the contract or agreement price to the state for specified purposes; providing an effective date.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

Section 1. (1) This act may be popularly referred to as the "Slosberg Sunshine Remittance Act."

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of law and in addition to any provision of law relating to entering into contracts or purchase agreements with the state, any person or business entity who enters into any contract or purchase agreement with the state to provide services or commodities or to construct any public project shall remit to the state an amount equal to 0.5 percent of the price under the contract or agreement. The proceeds of such remittance shall be used solely to provide for salaries to hire additional teachers for purposes of s. 1, Art. IX of the State Constitution, relating to class size limitations.

Section 2. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law.
