The Committee on Banking and Insurance recommended the following amendment:

Senate Amendment (with title amendment)

On page 1, line 12,

insert:

Section 2. Section 624.105, F.S., is created to read:

624.105 Waiver of customer liability; insurance required.--Any entity defined in s. 364.02(12), s. 366.02, s. 367.011, or s. 367.022(2) and (7) may charge for and include an optional waiver of liability provision in their customer contracts at the election of the customer under which the entity agrees to waive all or a portion of the customer's liability for service from the entity for a defined period in the event of the customer's death, disability, call to active military service, involuntary unemployment, qualification for family leave, or similar qualifying event or condition. No such provision shall constitute insurance so long as:

(1) the provision is a contract between the entity and its customer; and
