B. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

Current law provides that the Lee County Sheriff's Office pay for insurance coverage of retired members having obtained at least 15 years of service in the Florida Retirement System. At the present time, the retiree is allowed to pay for dependents' premiums. Upon the retiree's death, the surviving spouse may continue the insurance coverage.

Under the bill, the Lee County Sheriff's Office proposes to pay not only the retiree's premium, but also half of the dependents' coverage contingent upon the retirees premium having been paid at 100 percent for 20 years service. In addition, any retiree not obtaining 20 years of Florida Retirement System service may, under the bill, pay his or her dependents' premium. This bill also provides gender neutrality.
