B. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

Background

A Medal of Valor may be given to law enforcement officers or correctional officers. Any state board, commission, department, division, bureau, or agency, or any county or municipality that employs or appoints law enforcement officers or correctional officers, may establish an award program to award a Medal of Valor to any such officer whose actions are extraordinary and expose the officer to peril beyond the call of duty.¹ The Medal of Valor may be presented in the form of a medal authorized to be worn on the officer's uniform during formal occasions and a commendation bar to be worn on the uniform during normal duty. The cost of a Medal of Valor is limited to $250. A Medal of Valor may be awarded posthumously.

Effect of Bill

This bill allows the Governor to award a Medal of Heroism to law enforcement officers, corrections officers, correctional probation officers, firefighters, emergency medical technicians, or paramedics, who have “distinguished themselves conspicuously by gallantry and intrepidity and who risk their lives deliberately, above and beyond the call of duty,” while performing their duty and “engaging in hazardous or perilous activities to preserve lives, with the knowledge that such activities might result in great personal harm” to themselves.

A written application to the Governor is required. The Governor may refer applications to any governmental or private entity for advice and recommendations regarding an application.

IV. AMENDMENTS/COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE CHANGES

On February 19, 2002, the Committee on State Administration adopted one amendment to this bill. The amendment specifies that correctional probation officers are included in the list of public safety officers who may be awarded a Medal of Heroism; and allows the Governor to seek input from any state agency, local government, or private organization, when reviewing an application. The bill was then reported favorably, as amended.
