B. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

Currently, section 196.24, F.S., provides a $5,000 reduction in taxable value to any resident, ex-service member who has been disabled to a degree of 10 percent or more while serving during a period of wartime service or by misfortune. To qualify, the applicant must produce a certificate of disability from the United States Government or the United States Department of Veterans Affairs.

Given the statewide average millage rate of 20.46, this $5000 exemption results in an average savings of $102.30 on the ex-service member’s property tax bill.

The committee substitute would entitle a qualified surviving spouse of a veteran receiving this exemption to continue receiving the exemption after the veteran’s death. In order to be a qualified spouse, the individual widow or widower must have been married to the veteran for a period of at least 20 years at the time of the veteran’s death. If the widow or widower remarries, this exemption is lost. This definition of surviving spouse is consistent with federal law.²

In addition, the committee substitute replaces the term “ex-service member” with the term “veteran”. This change was made to promote consistency in the statute. The term “ex-service member” is not defined in the statutes. However, the current exemption is limited in the statute to persons who were injured serving “during a period of wartime service as defined in s. 1.01(14), or by misfortune.” The definition of veteran is contained in s. 1.01(14), F.S., and that definition requires a person to have served during a wartime period to qualify as a veteran. Thus, any ex-service member who is currently receiving the exemption because they were injured “by misfortune” and did not serve during a wartime period may lose their exemption.

Current law entitles every widow or widower to a $500 dollar property tax exemption. The addition of the exemption under this bill increases the total to $5500.

C. SECTION DIRECTORY:

Section 1: Amends section 196.24, F.S., to entitle certain surviving spouses of certain veterans to a property tax exemption amounting to $5000. In order to qualify for the exemption the surviving spouse must have been married to the disabled veteran for a period of at least 20 years prior to the veteran’s death. The exemption is not available to a surviving spouse who has remarried.

Section 2: Provides that the bill will take upon becoming law.

II. FISCAL ANALYSIS & ECONOMIC IMPACT STATEMENT

A. FISCAL IMPACT ON STATE GOVERNMENT:

1. Revenues: None.
2. Expenditures: None.

B. FISCAL IMPACT ON LOCAL GOVERNMENTS:

1. Revenues: This bill may have a negative fiscal impact on local governments.
2. Expenditures: None.

DIRECT ECONOMIC IMPACT ON PRIVATE SECTOR: If enacted into law, certain surviving spouses of certain veterans will benefit from reduced ad valorem taxes. This reduction in the property tax base will result in a corresponding shift in property tax burden to other property owners.

C. FISCAL COMMENTS: The Committee Substitute has a negative $.95 million dollar fiscal impact on local government.

III. COMMENTS

A. CONSTITUTIONAL ISSUES:

1. Applicability of Municipality/County Mandates Provision: None.
2. Other: None.

B. RULE-MAKING AUTHORITY: None.

C. DRAFTING ISSUES OR OTHER COMMENTS: While the definition of surviving spouse provided in the Committee Substitute is consistent with federal law, it differs from the definition of surviving spouse contained in sections 196.081 and 196.091, F.S., and used to determine the eligibility of a widow or widower to continue receiving the benefit provide in those sections for totally and permanently disabled veterans and veterans confined to wheelchairs.

IV. AMENDMENTS/COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE CHANGES

The Subcommittee on Veterans' & Military Affairs recommended a strike-everything amendment at its meeting on February 20, 2003. The strike-everything amendment changes the term "ex-service member" to "veteran". Veteran is defined in section 1.01(14), F.S. Ex-service member is not defined in Florida Statute, however there is a definition in Title 38, USC, sec. 4303(13)(16).³ The strike-everything

(a) Spanish-American War: April 21, 1898, to July 4, 1902, and including the Philippine Insurrection and the Boxer Rebellion.

amendment clarifies the definition of the term "surviving spouse" using language taken from federal law.⁴ The strike-everything amendment also states that the unremarried widow or widower of a disabled veteran had to have been married to the disabled veteran for a period of at least 20 years.⁵

The effect of the amendment is to reduce the fiscal impacts by approximately $.44 million. Ex-service members by definition are not necessarily also veterans under the lawful definition of veteran thereby excluding some persons who may have previously qualified for the exemption. Also, unless the surviving spouse, on the day of the veteran's death, has been married to the veteran at least 20 years, the surviving spouse would not qualify for the exemption.

The Committee on Local Government & Veterans' Affairs adopted the amendment and passed the bill on March 6, 2003.
