I. Summary:

This legislation re-creates the Child Support Enforcement Application and Program Revenue Trust Fund, FLAIR number 73-2-104, which is administered by the Department of Revenue. Re-creation is effective for four years beginning on November 4, 2004, the current termination date of the fund. This fund was last re-created effective November 4, 2000, by Chapter 99-127, Laws of Florida.

II. Present Situation:

Section 61.1814, F.S., creates the trust fund, provides for its purpose, and provides for its revenues. The Child Support Enforcement Application and Program Revenue Trust Fund was established to control and account for application fees, user fees, and associated revenues applicable to the Child Support Enforcement Program. The major revenues are application fees of nonpublic assistance applicants for child support enforcement services and fines imposed pursuant to ss. 409.2564(8)(d), 409.2567 and 409.2578(3), F.S. Actual receipts to this fund for FY 2001-2002 were $9,298,684.

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

This bill re-creates the trust fund without modification.
