House Resolution

A resolution designating June 2-6, 2003, as "Chamber of Commerce Week" in Florida.

WHEREAS, there are chambers of commerce located in local communities throughout the State of Florida, representing both small and large businesses, and

WHEREAS, in addition to promoting the business, civic, and economic interests in the regions they serve, chambers of commerce provide input to leaders on the local, state, and federal levels of government on various issues of critical concern to their members, and

WHEREAS, today's chambers of commerce are also vigorously leading their communities in advancing technology, solving problems, and establishing a clear vision for the future, and

WHEREAS, chamber volunteers give unselfishly of their time, energy, and expertise to advance the mission of the local chambers of commerce and to meet their annual goals, and

WHEREAS, it is appropriate that the merits of the chambers of commerce across the state be recognized and that sincere appreciation be expressed for the steadfast efforts of all who are involved in the work of the chambers, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Florida:

That the House of Representatives pauses in its deliberations to recognize the outstanding efforts of the state's chambers of commerce on behalf of their local
