Senator Fasano moved the following amendment:

Senate Amendment (with title amendment)

On page 127, between lines 20 and 21, insert:

Section 53. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 1006.37, Florida Statutes, the Department of Education may conduct a pilot program to enable selected school districts to realize cost savings without loss of quality or availability for individual students in the purchase of used instructional materials. The school districts of Hernando County, Pasco County, and Polk County may participate in the pilot program. Charter schools in such school districts shall be eligible to participate in the pilot program. When a secondhand book dealer or other third-party book vendor provides used adopted instructional materials to a school district, the dealer or vendor must certify the availability of the used instructional materials, provide the International Standard Book Number of each of the used instructional materials, and certify that such materials are not samples or first printings, are the

2 materials, and that the materials conform to the Sunshine
3 State Standards. The state is not responsible for financial 4 loss caused by the school district's deviating from the 5 requirements of section 1006.37, Florida Statutes. The Council 6 for Education Policy Research and Improvement shall submit to 7 the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of 8 Representatives for consideration during the 2004 Regular 9 Session a report of the cost savings to school districts based 10 on results of the pilot program. This section is repealed July 11 1, 2006.
