Representative Bean offered the following:

Amendment (with title amendment)

Between line(s) 228 and 229, insert:

Section 9. Subsection (1) of section 103.091, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

103.091 Political parties.--

(1) Each political party of the state shall be represented by a state executive committee. County executive committees and other committees may be established in accordance with the rules of the state executive committee. A political party may provide for the selection of its national committee and its state and county executive committees in such manner as it deems proper. Unless otherwise provided by party rule, the county executive committee of each political party shall consist of at least two members, a man and a woman, from each precinct, who shall be called the precinct committeeman and committeewoman. For
