Bill No. CS for SB 2-B

Amendment No. ____ Barcode 332632

CHAMBER ACTION

Senator Campbell moved the following amendment: Senator Campbell moved the following	ī	Senate House
Senator Campbell moved the following amendment: Senator Campbell moved the following amendment. Senator Campbell moved the following	1	•
Senator Campbell moved the following amendment: It senator Campbell moved the following amendment: Senator Campbell moved the following amendment: Senator Campbell moved the following amendment: It has amended in the senicolon, The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. And the title is amended as follows: On page 14, line 24, after the second semicolon, insert: providing for cost-of-living adjustments to	_	·
Senator Campbell moved the following amendment: Senator Campbell moved the following amendment: Senate Amendment (with title amendment) On page 131, line 31, after the semicolon, insert: The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded under this section must be adjusted each year on July 1 to reflect the rate of inflation or deflation as indicated in the Consumer Price Index for all urban consumers which is published by the United States Department of Labor. However, the maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. And the title is amended as follows: On page 14, line 24, after the second semicolon, insert: providing for cost-of-living adjustments to	_	.
Senator Campbell moved the following amendment: Senator Campbell moved the following amendment: Senate Amendment (with title amendment) On page 131, line 31, after the semicolon, insert: The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded under this section must be adjusted each year on July 1 to reflect the rate of inflation or deflation as indicated in the Consumer Price Index for all urban consumers which is published by the United States Department of Labor. However, the maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. And the title is amended as follows: On page 14, line 24, after the second semicolon, insert: providing for cost-of-living adjustments to		·
Senator Campbell moved the following amendment: Senator Campbell moved the following amendment: Senate Amendment (with title amendment) On page 131, line 31, after the semicolon, insert: The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded under this section must be adjusted each year on July 1 to reflect the rate of inflation or deflation as indicated in the Consumer Price Index for all urban consumers which is published by the United States Department of Labor. However, the maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. And the title is amended as follows: On page 14, line 24, after the second semicolon, insert: providing for cost-of-living adjustments to
Senator Campbell moved the following amendment: Senator Campbell moved the following amendment: Senate Amendment (with title amendment) On page 131, line 31, after the semicolon, insert: The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded under this section must be adjusted each year on July 1 to reflect the rate of inflation or deflation as indicated in the Consumer Price Index for all urban consumers which is published by the United States Department of Labor. However, the maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. And the title is amended as follows: On page 14, line 24, after the second semicolon, insert: providing for cost-of-living adjustments to	6
Senator Campbell moved the following amendment: Senator Campbell moved the following amendment: Senate Amendment (with title amendment) On page 131, line 31, after the semicolon, insert: The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded under this section must be adjusted each year on July 1 to reflect the rate of inflation or deflation as indicated in the Consumer Price Index for all urban consumers which is published by the United States Department of Labor. However. the maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. And the title is amended as follows: On page 14, line 24, after the second semicolon, insert: providing for cost-of-living adjustments to	7
Senator Campbell moved the following amendment: Senate Amendment (with title amendment) On page 131, line 31, after the semicolon, insert: The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded under this section must be adjusted each year on July 1 to reflect the rate of inflation or deflation as indicated in the Consumer Price Index for all urban consumers which is published by the United States Department of Labor. However, the maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. And the title is amended as follows: On page 14, line 24, after the second semicolon, insert: providing for cost-of-living adjustments to	8
Senator Campbell moved the following amendment: Senate Amendment (with title amendment) On page 131, line 31, after the semicolon, insert: The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded under this section must be adjusted each year on July 1 to reflect the rate of inflation or deflation as indicated in the Consumer Price Index for all urban consumers which is published by the United States Department of Labor. However, the maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. And the title is amended as follows: On page 14, line 24, after the second semicolon, insert: providing for cost-of-living adjustments to	9
Senate Amendment (with title amendment) On page 131, line 31, after the semicolon, insert: The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded under this section must be adjusted each year on July 1 to reflect the rate of inflation or deflation as indicated in the Consumer Price Index for all urban consumers which is published by the United States Department of Labor. However, the maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000.	10
Senate Amendment (with title amendment) On page 131, line 31, after the semicolon, insert: The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded under this section must be adjusted each year on July 1 to reflect the rate of inflation or deflation as indicated in the Consumer Price Index for all urban consumers which is published by the United States Department of Labor. However, the maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. 23 44 25 26 And the title is amended as follows: On page 14, line 24, after the second semicolon, 28 29 insert: providing for cost-of-living adjustments to	11	Senator Campbell moved the following amendment:
On page 131, line 31, after the semicolon, insert: The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded under this section must be adjusted each year on July 1 to reflect the rate of inflation or deflation as indicated in the Consumer Price Index for all urban consumers which is published by the United States Department of Labor. However, the maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. 23 24 25 26 And the title is amended as follows: On page 14, line 24, after the second semicolon, 28 29 insert: providing for cost-of-living adjustments to	12
insert: The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded under this section must be adjusted each year on July 1 to reflect the rate of inflation or deflation as indicated in the Consumer Price Index for all urban consumers which is published by the United States Department of Labor. However, the maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. And the title is amended as follows: On page 14, line 24, after the second semicolon, insert: providing for cost-of-living adjustments to	13	Senate Amendment (with title amendment)
insert: The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded under this section must be adjusted each year on July 1 to reflect the rate of inflation or deflation as indicated in the Consumer Price Index for all urban consumers which is published by the United States Department of Labor. However, the maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. And the title is amended as follows: On page 14, line 24, after the second semicolon, insert: providing for cost-of-living adjustments to	14	On page 131, line 31, after the semicolon, awarded under this section must be adjusted each year on July 1 to reflect the rate of inflation or deflation as indicated in the Consumer Price Index for all urban consumers which is published by the United States Department of Labor. However, the maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. 23 24 25 26 And the title is amended as follows: On page 14, line 24, after the second semicolon, 28 29 insert: providing for cost-of-living adjustments to	15
18 1 to reflect the rate of inflation or deflation as indicated in the Consumer Price Index for all urban consumers which is published by the United States Department of Labor. However, the maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. 23 24 25 ====================================	16	insert: The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be in the Consumer Price Index for all urban consumers which is published by the United States Department of Labor. However, the maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. The maximum amount of noneconomic damages th	17	awarded under this section must be adjusted each year on July
<pre>published by the United States Department of Labor. However, the maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. 23 24 25 ====================================</pre>	18	1 to reflect the rate of inflation or deflation as indicated the maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded may not be less than $500,000. The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded The maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded The	19	in the Consumer Price Index for all urban consumers which is may not be less than $500,000. 23 24 25 ===================================	20	published by the United States Department of Labor. However,
23 24 25 ====================================	21	the maximum amount of noneconomic damages that may be awarded
24 25 =========== TITLE AMENDMENT====================================	22	may not be less than $500,000.
25 =========== T I T L E A M E N D M E N T =================================	23
And the title is amended as follows: On page 14, line 24, after the second semicolon, insert: providing for cost-of-living adjustments to	24
On page 14, line 24, after the second semicolon, line 24 after the second semicolon, line 25 insert: line 24 after the second semicolon, line 26 providing for cost-of-living adjustments to	25	======== T I T L E A M E N D M E N T =========
28 29 insert: 30 providing for cost-of-living adjustments to	26	And the title is amended as follows:
<pre>29 insert: 30 providing for cost-of-living adjustments to</pre>		On page 14, line 24, after the second semicolon, providing for cost-of-living adjustments to All gugh maximum amount of nonogonomic damages:
6:13 PM 06/17/03 s0002Bc1c-32e1c	31	 