Senator Bennett moved the following amendment:

Senate Amendment

On page 126, lines 15-21, delete those lines and insert: provided for therein; during a period of 210 days thereafter; or during a 90-day period after the filing of an amended medical malpractice complaint alleging new facts previously unknown to the insurer. This paragraph does not apply when, based upon information known earlier to the insurance company or its representatives, the insurance company could and should have settled the claim within policy limits if it had been acting fairly and honestly toward the insured and with due regard for the insured's interests after the 90-day presuit period.
