1 Sarasota, and two members nominated by Asolo Theater, Inc.,
2 and approved by the President of Florida State University.
3 The seven core members of the board shall appoint two 4 additional members to serve on the board of directors with the 5 approval of the President of Florida State University. The 6 President of Florida State University shall appoint two 7 members from the Sarasota community, or, at the President's 8 discretion, may appoint two members nominated by the Sarasota 9 Ballet, Inc. Upon appointment of all members of the board of 10 directors, the direct-support organization shall develop a 11 charter and bylaws to govern its operation, provided that all 12 decisions by its board of directors shall be taken by at least 13 six-vote majorities. The charter, bylaws, and any 14 modifications of such, shall be subject to approval by Florida
15 State University.

16 (2) The direct-support organization, operating under 17 its charter and bylaws, shall acquire from Florida State
18 University, own and operate the Florida State University
19 Center for the Performing Arts, and shall promote a resident 20 professional repertory program to work in conjunction with,
21 complement and support the Conservatory's graduate educational 22 theater program of Florida State University in Sarasota. It 23 shall engage in fundraising to support its activities and 24 support the independent fundraising efforts of the Asolo and 25 the Conservatory. The direct-support organization shall 26 operate and maintain the building in coordination with the 27 Florida State University Ringling Cultural Center. All 28 agreements between the University and Asolo in force on the 29 effective date of this statute shall remain binding on the 30 parties.

31 (3) The direct support organization shall provide for

1 an annual financial audit in accordance with s. 1004.28(5).
 2 The audit shall be addressed to the direct support
 3 organization, Florida State University, the Asolo and, if it
 4 has members serving on the Board of Directors, the Ballet, 5 each of whom are authorized to require and receive from the 6 direct-support organization, or from its independent auditor, 7 any detail or supplemental data relative to the operation of 8 such organization.

9 (4) An employee or member of the direct-support 10 organization may not receive, nor any member of their 11 immediate family receive, a commission, fee, or financial 12 benefit in connection with services or goods associated with 13 the direct-support organization and may not be a business 14 associate of any individual, firm, or organization involved in 15 the sale or exchange of goods or services within the 16 direct-support organization.

17 (5) In all other respects, the direct-support
 18 organization shall act as a direct-support organization
 19 authorized and governed by the provisions of s. 1004.28.

20 (6) Florida State University shall transfer the Center
 21 for the Performing Arts to the direct-support organization
 22 when Florida State University has approved the charter and 23 bylaws of the direct-support organization.
