SUMMARY ANALYSIS

HB 177 changes the ranking of offenses related to cargo theft in the offense severity ranking chart of the Criminal Punishment Code. As a result, the lowest permissible sentence for the theft of cargo worth less than $50,000 will increase from any non-state prison sanction (such as probation or county jail) to 21 months in prison, while the lowest permissible sentence for the theft of cargo worth $50,000 or more will increase from 21 months to 34 months in prison. The maximum sentences for these offenses are not be affected by the bill and are 15 years and 30 years respectively.

FULL ANALYSIS

I. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS

A. DOES THE BILL:

- |                                      |   |  |   |
|--------------------------------------|---|--|---|
| 1. Reduce government?                | Yes <input type="checkbox"/>            | No <input type="checkbox"/>            | N/A <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> |
| 2. Lower taxes?                      | Yes <input type="checkbox"/>            | No <input type="checkbox"/>            | N/A <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> |
| 3. Expand individual freedom?        | Yes <input type="checkbox"/>            | No <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> | N/A <input type="checkbox"/>            |
| 4. Increase personal responsibility? | Yes <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> | No <input type="checkbox"/>            | N/A <input type="checkbox"/>            |
| 5. Empower families?                 | Yes <input type="checkbox"/>            | No <input type="checkbox"/>            | N/A <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> |

For any principle that received a “no” above, please explain:

The bill requires the use of kingpin locking devices on semitrailers in certain circumstances which may be seen as failing to expand individual freedom.

B. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

Sentencing: The Criminal Punishment Code applies to sentencing for felony offenses committed on or after October 1, 1998. A defendant’s sentence is calculated based on points assigned for factors including: the offense for which the defendant is being sentenced; the injury to the victim; additional offenses that the defendant committed at the time of the primary offense; the defendant’s prior record and other aggravating factors. Offenses are ranked in the “offense severity ranking chart” from level one (least severe) to level ten (most severe) and are assigned points based on the severity of the offense as determined by the legislature. The points are added in order to determine the “lowest permissible sentence” for the offense. This is the minimum sentence that a judge may impose.<sup>1</sup> The permissible sentence for an offense ranges from the calculated lowest permissible sentence to the statutory maximum for the primary offense. The statutory maximum sentence for a first degree felony is thirty years, for a second degree felony is fifteen years and for a third degree felony is five years. s. 775.082, F.S.

Cargo Theft: Section 812.014, F.S. provides that a person commits theft if he or she knowingly obtains or uses, or endeavors to obtain or to use, the property of another with intent to, either temporarily or permanently:

- Deprive the other person of a right to the property or a benefit from the property or
- Appropriate the property to his or her own use or to the use of any person not entitled to the use of the property.

If the property stolen is cargo valued at $50,000 or more that has entered the stream of interstate or intrastate commerce from the shipper’s loading platform to the consignee’s receiving dock, the offense is a first degree felony, ranked in level 7 of the offense severity ranking chart of the Criminal Punishment Code. If the cargo is valued at less than $50,000, the offense is a second degree felony, ranked in level 6 of the offense severity ranking chart of the Criminal Punishment Code.

HB 177 increases the ranking of the cargo theft offenses in the offense severity ranking chart. The offense of cargo theft valued at less than $50,000 which is currently ranked in level 6, will now be ranked in level 7. This will result in the lowest permissible sentence for a first time offender increasing from any non-state prison sanction (such as county jail or probation) to 21 months in prison. The offense of cargo theft valued at more than $50,000, which is currently ranked in level 7, will now be ranked in level 8. This will result in the lowest permissible sentence for a first time offender increasing from 21 to 34 months in prison.

<sup>1</sup> According to s. 921.0026(1), F.S. downward departure from the lowest permissible sentence is prohibited unless “there are circumstances or factors that reasonably justify the downward departure.” In other words, a judge is not permitted to impose a sentence below the lowest permissible sentence unless the judge makes specific findings justifying the downward departure.

C. SECTION DIRECTORY:

Section 1. Reenacts s. 812.014, F.S.

Section 2. Amends s. 921.0022, F.S. to modify offense severity ranking chart of the Criminal Punishment Code.

Section 3. Provides effective date.

II. FISCAL ANALYSIS & ECONOMIC IMPACT STATEMENT

A. FISCAL IMPACT ON STATE GOVERNMENT:

1. Revenues:

None.

2. Expenditures:

The Criminal Justice Impact Conference has not met to consider the prison bed impact of this bill on the Department of Corrections. During the 2003 session, the conference determined that SB 2336 which is similar to HB 177 would have an insignificant impact.

B. FISCAL IMPACT ON LOCAL GOVERNMENTS:

1. Revenues:

None.

2. Expenditures:

None.

C. DIRECT ECONOMIC IMPACT ON PRIVATE SECTOR:

None.

D. FISCAL COMMENTS:

See above.

III. COMMENTS

A. CONSTITUTIONAL ISSUES:

1. Applicability of Municipality/County Mandates Provision:

The bill appears to be exempt from the requirements of Article VII, Section 18 of the Florida Constitution because it is a criminal law.

2. Other:

None.

B. RULE-MAKING AUTHORITY:

None.

C. DRAFTING ISSUES OR OTHER COMMENTS:

None.
