14 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

15

16 Section 1. Subsections (4) and (5) of section 39.812, 17 Florida Statutes, are amended to read:18 39.812 Postdisposition relief; petition for 19 adoption.--

20 (4) The court shall retain jurisdiction over any child 21 placed in the custody of the department until the child is 22 adopted. After custody of a child for subsequent adoption has 23 been given to the department, the court has jurisdiction for 24 the purpose of reviewing the status of the child and the 25 progress being made toward permanent adoptive placement. As 26 part of this continuing jurisdiction, for good cause shown by 27 the guardian ad litem for the child, the court may review the 28 appropriateness of the adoptive placement of the child. When a 29 licensed foster parent or court-ordered custodian has applied 30 to adopt a child who has resided with the foster parent or 31 custodian for at least 6 months and who has previously been

1 permanently committed to the legal custody of the department
2 and the department does not grant the application to adopt,
3 the department may not, in the absence of a prior court order
4 authorizing it to do so, remove the child from the foster home 5 or custodian, except when:

6 (a) There is probable cause to believe that the child
7 is at imminent risk of abuse or neglect;

8 (b) Thirty days have expired following written notice 9 to the foster parent or custodian of the denial of the 10 application to adopt, within which period no formal challenge 11 of the department's decision has been filed; or

12 (c) The foster parent or custodian agrees to the 13 child's removal.

14 (5) The petition for adoption must be filed in the 15 division of the circuit court which entered the judgment 16 terminating parental rights, unless a motion for change of 17 venue is granted pursuant to s. 47.122. A copy of the consent 18 executed by the department as required under s. 63.062(7) must 19 be attached to the petition, unless the court determines that 20 such consent is being unreasonably withheld and provided that 21 the petitioner has filed with the court a favorable
22 preliminary adoptive home study performed by a licensed 23 child-placing agency, a child-caring agency registered under 24 s. 409.176, or a licensed professional or agency described in 25 s. 61.20(2). The petition must be accompanied by a form 26 provided by the department which details the social and 27 medical history of the child and each parent and includes the 28 social security number and date of birth for each parent, if 29 such information is available or readily obtainable. The 30 person seeking to adopt the child may not file a petition for 31 adoption until the judgment terminating parental rights

1 becomes final. An adoption proceeding under this subsection is 2 governed by chapter 63, as limited under s. 63.037.

3 Section 2. Subsection (7) of section 63.062, Florida
4 Statutes, is amended to read:

5 63.062 Persons required to consent to adoption;
6 affidavit of nonpaternity; waiver of venue.--

7 (7) If parental rights to the minor have previously 8 been terminated, the adoption entity with which the minor has 9 been placed for subsequent adoption may provide consent to the 10 adoption. In such case, no other consent is required. The 11 consent of the department shall be waived upon a determination
12 by the court that such consent is being unreasonably withheld,
13 provided that the petitioner has filed with the court a 14 favorable preliminary adoptive home study performed by a 15 licensed child-placing agency, a child-caring agency 16 registered under s. 409.176, or a licensed professional or 17 agency described in s. 61.20(2).

18 Section 3. This act shall take effect upon becoming a 19 law.
