2 the secretary.

3 (b) The Deputy Secretary for Cultural and Historical 4 Programs is directly responsible to the secretary, shall have
5 oversight of the Division of Historical Resources and the 6 Division of Cultural Affairs, and shall perform such other
7 duties as assigned by the secretary.

8 (c) The Deputy Secretary for State Records is directly
9 responsible to the secretary, shall have oversight of the 10 Division of Elections, Division of State Recordings, and the 11 Division of Library and Information Services, and shall 12 perform such other duties as assigned by the secretary.

13 (3)(2) The following divisions of the Department of 14 State are established:

- 15 (a) Division of Elections.
- 16 (b) Division of Historical Resources.
- 17 (c) Division of State Recordings Corporations.
- 18 (d) Division of Library and Information Services.
- 19 (e) Division of Cultural Affairs.
- 20 (f) Division of Administration.

21 1. Bureau of Central Computing Support Services.

22 (4) The department is encouraged to computerize its 23 grant application and other processes. The department, to the 24 extent feasible, may cross train employees with grant
25 expertise in the divisions with responsibility for grant
26 awards and shall use uniform grant processes and forms, where 27 appropriate. The department shall not modify the standards or 28 the program and grant relationships and responsibilities
29 established in law.

30 (5) Statutorily required duties and responsibilities
31 of and programs assigned to divisions within the department or
