I. Summary:

This bill defines self-murder as the voluntary and intentional taking of one's own life, including attempts. Under this bill, one who engages in conducting, promoting, publicizing, collecting admission to, or providing a theater, auditorium, club or other venue for a commercial purpose, where the person at least reasonably should know includes an actual self-murder, commits a third degree felony.

Simulated self-murder, defined in this bill as a self-murder publicly depicted or portrayed through script, play, movie, or story where the public has prior notice that it is only a simulation, is exempted from the provisions of this bill.

This bill creates a new subsection, s. 782.081 in the Florida Statutes.

II. Present Situation:

In the Fall of 2003, a rock band advertised that it intended to hold a concert, to include the public suicide of a terminally ill person, in support of euthanasia (St. Petersburg Times, October 22, 2003).

The St. Petersburg City Commission immediately passed a city ordinance, by emergency order, making it illegal to conduct a suicide for commercial or entertainment purposes, or to host, promote, or sell tickets to such an event. Ordinance No. 634-G, Section 20-100 (2003). Violation of the city ordinance can result in up to a sixty day jail sentence and a $500 fine. Pinellas County Commissioners extended the ban countywide in 2003 following the City Commission's actions, and broadened it to include all public suicide.

Section 782.08, F.S., relating to assisting self-murder, provides that a person deliberately assisting another in the commission of self-murder is guilty of manslaughter, a second degree felony, punishable by a term of imprisonment of up to fifteen years, along with payment of up to $10,000 in fines.

A third degree felony is punishable by up to five years in prison, and $5,000 in fines. ss. 775.082 and 775.083, F.S.

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

S. 782.081, F.S., provides the following changes in law:

- Definitions: Defines 'self-murder' as the voluntary and intentional taking of one's own life, including attempts; Defines 'simulated self-murder' as the artistic depiction or portrayal of self-murder which is not an actual self-murder, including, but not limited to, that which is depicted or portrayed through a script, play, movie, or story presented to the public, where the public has been informed that it will not be an actual self-murder.
- Elements: Prohibits a person from engaging in the following activities for commercial or entertainment purposes: conducting, promoting or publicizing, collecting admission, or providing a theater, auditorium, club or other venue or location for any event that the person knows or reasonably should know includes an actual self-murder; Provides an exemption for any event during which a simulated self-murder will occur from the provisions of this section; Provides that it is not a defense to prosecution that an attempted self-murder did not result in a self-murder; Provides that a person who violates this section commits a third degree felony.

IV. Constitutional Issues:

A. Municipality/County Mandates Restrictions:

None.

B. Public Records/Open Meetings Issues:

None.

C. Trust Funds Restrictions:

None.

V. Economic Impact and Fiscal Note:

A. Tax/Fee Issues:

None.

B. Private Sector Impact:

None.

C. Government Sector Impact:

A spokesperson for the Department of Corrections indicated that they expect minimal or no fiscal impact as a result of the passage of this bill.

VI. Technical Deficiencies:

None.

VII. Related Issues:

Simulated self-murder is exempted from the prohibitions under this bill. To constitute a simulated, rather than an actual, self-murder, the public is required to be notified that the depiction or portrayal will not be an actual self-murder. It appears that this would require there to be a warning, or clarification statement, prior to the showing of every portrayal or depiction of such a simulation (i.e. before the start of a film or play containing a self-murder).

VIII. Amendments:

#1 by Judiciary:

This amendment removes the public notification requirement from the simulated self-murder exception.
