17 names, home addresses, and social security numbers of parents or 18 guardians of such child is exempt from subsection (1) and s.
19 24(a), Art. I of the State Constitution. Information made exempt
20 pursuant to this paragraph may be disclosed by court order upon 21 a showing of good cause. This exemption applies to records held 22 before, on, or after the effective date of this exemption

23 Section 2. Paragraph (hh) of subsection (3) of s. 119.07,
24 Florida Statutes, is subject to the Open Government Sunset
25 Review Act of 1995 in accordance with s. 119.15, Florida
26 Statutes, and shall stand repealed on October 2, 2009, unless 27 reviewed and saved from repeal through reenactment by the 28 Legislature.

29 Section 3. The Legislature finds that it is a public 30 necessity that any information that would identify or help to 31 locate a child who participates in government-sponsored 32 recreation programs or camps or the parents or guardians of such 33 child, including, but not limited to, the name, home address, 34 telephone number, social security number, and photograph of such 35 child, the names and locations of the schools attended by such 36 child, and the names, home addresses, and social security
37 numbers of the parents or guardians of such child, be held 38 exempt from public records requirements because revealing such 39 information could create the opportunity for stalking,
40 harrassment, abduction, or abuse of such children. Information
41 that identifies a child in a government-sponsored recreation
42 program or camp could be used directly to locate that child.
43 Information that identifies a parent or guardian of such a child
44 could be used indirectly to lead to the location of the child.

Amendment No. (for drafter's use only)

45 As the public availability of this information could create the 46 opportunity for stalking, harrassment, abduction, or abuse of 47 these children, it would be contrary to the state's compelling
 48 interest in preserving the public safety to permit the release
 49 of such information. Protecting such personal identifying 50 information of these children and their parents or guardians
 51 helps to minimize the opportunity for stalking, harrassment, 52 abduction, or abuse and thus it is a public necessity that such 53 information be held confidential and exempt from public records
 54 requirements.

55 Section 4. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law.
