I. Summary:

This bill creates the Welfare Transition Trust Fund in the Department of Military Affairs, effective July 1, 2004. This trust fund will be used to receive federal funds from the Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) block grant.

II. Present Situation:

There is no single trust fund specifically designated to receive federal funds from the TANF block grant. TANF funds are presently commingled with other federal funds, at the discretion of each state agency that receives funding from the TANF block grant.

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

The Welfare Transition Trust Fund will be the designated trust fund to be used by all state agencies receiving TANF funding. This bill creates the Welfare Transition Trust Fund in the Department of Military Affairs, for the purpose of receiving federal funds from the TANF block grant.
