2 A resolution congratulating the Oviedo High School State
3 Championship Wrestling Team.

4
5 WHEREAS, with the largest margin of victory in state
6 history, the Oviedo High School boys wrestling team won the 7 school's first wrestling championship on February 28, 2004, in 8 one of the most dominating team performances in Class 3A
9 history, and

10 WHEREAS, scoring 163.5 points, the Lions broke a Class 3A
11 record for winning the most points in a state tournament; tied a 12 3A record with three individual titles; and out of a team of 11
13 state qualifiers had four placers, with two more only one match
14 shy of placing in the top six, and

15 WHEREAS, Oviedo's three state champions are 125-pounder 16 Seve Hewitt, who dedicated his title to a teammate who lost his 17 life in an automobile accident two years ago; 135-pounder Jason 18 Robbins, who marked his third consecutive undefeated season; and 19 145-pounder Justin Fraga, who, on his 17th birthday, kept a 20 year-old promise to his father of a championship win, and

21 WHEREAS, perhaps Head Coach Tom Coffman best captured
22 Oviedo's sentiments regarding its championship team when, in 23 crediting the Lions for their determination and hard work, he 24 expressed his unabashed pride in their record-breaking 25 performances and accomplishments as "something we can look back 26 on and talk about down the road, but the state championship will 27 always be first," NOW, THEREFORE,
