11 The Committee on Community Affairs (Clary) recommended the 12 following amendment:

Senate Amendment

15 On page 6, lines 1-22, delete those lines

17 and insert: ticket sales, food services, utilities services,
18 space rentals, equipment rentals, security services,
19 decorating services, business services, advertising services,
20 communications services, exhibit supply sales and rentals,
21 locksmith services, and sales of gifts and sundries. The total 22 distribution to each unit of local government shall not exceed 23 $1 million per state fiscal year. However, total distributions
24 to all units of local government shall not exceed $5 million
25 per state fiscal year, and such distribution shall be limited 26 exclusively to the taxes collected and remitted under the 27 provisions of this chapter. If collections and remittances of 28 eligible convention centers exceed the $5 million maximum 29 amount authorized for distribution, the department shall 30 distribute proceeds to each eligible unit of local government 31 using an apportionment factor, the numerator of which is the

1 amount remitted by an eligible convention center and the 2 denominator is the total amount remitted by all eligible
3 convention centers. The apportionment factor for each eligible
4 convention center shall be applied to the $5 million maximum 5 amount authorized for distribution to determine the amount 6 that shall be distributed to each local government unit. The 7 department shall prescribe forms required to be filed with the 8 department by eligible convention centers. Distributions shall 9 begin 60 days following notification of certification by the 10 Office of Tourism, Trade, and Economic Development pursuant to 11 s. 288.1171. Distributions shall be used solely to encourage 12 and provide economic development for the attraction, 13 recruitment, and retention of corporate headquarters and of 14 high-technology, manufacturing, research and development, 15 entertainment, and tourism industries as designated by the 16 unit of local government by resolution of its governing body,
17 and to assist the eligible convention centers to attract more
18 business and expand their offerings, including developing 19 their own events and shows. This sub-subparagraph is repealed
20 effective June 30, 2008.
