

1 39.202 Confidentiality of reports and records in cases
2 of child abuse or neglect.--

3 (2) Except as provided in subsection (4), access to 4 such records, excluding the name of the reporter which shall 5 be released only as provided in subsection (5), shall be 6 granted only to the following persons, officials, and 7 agencies:

8 (g) The executive director or equivalent, and his or 9 her designee, of a children's advocacy center that is 10 established and operated under s. 39.3035.

11 (4) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, when a 12 child under investigation or supervision of the department or 13 its contracted service providers is determined to be missing,
14 the following shall apply:

15 (a) The department may release the following 16 information to the public when it believes the release of the 17 information is likely to assist efforts in locating the child 18 or to promote the safety or well-being of the child:

19 1. The name of the child and the child's date of 20 birth;

21 2. A physical description of the child, including at a 22 minimum the height, weight, hair color, eye color, gender, and 23 any identifying physical characteristics of the child; and 24 3. A photograph of the child.

25 (b) With the concurrence of the law enforcement agency 26 primarily responsible for investigating the incident, the 27 department may release any additional information it believes 28 likely to assist efforts in locating the child or to promote 29 the safety or well-being of the child.

30 (c) The law enforcement agency primarily responsible 31 for investigating the incident may release any information

1 received from the department regarding the investigation, if 2 it believes the release of the information is likely to assist 3 efforts in locating the child or to promote the safety or 4 well-being of the child.

5
6 The good faith publication or release of this information by 7 the department, a law enforcement agency, or any recipient of 8 the information as specifically authorized by this subsection 9 shall not subject the person, agency or entity releasing the 10 information to any civil or criminal penalty. This subsection
11 does not authorize the release of the name of the reporter,
12 which may be released only as provided in subsection (5).

13 (5) The name of any person reporting child abuse,
14 abandonment, or neglect may not be released to any person
15 other than employees of the department responsible for child
16 protective services, the central abuse hotline, law
17 enforcement, the child protection team, or the appropriate
18 state attorney, without the written consent of the person
19 reporting. This does not prohibit the subpoenaing of a person 20 reporting child abuse, abandonment, or neglect when deemed 21 necessary by the court, the state attorney, or the department, 22 provided the fact that such person made the report is not 23 disclosed. Any person who reports a case of child abuse or 24 neglect may, at the time he or she makes the report, request 25 that the department notify him or her that a child protective 26 investigation occurred as a result of the report. Any person 27 specifically listed in s. 39.201(1) who makes a report in his 28 or her official capacity may also request a written summary of 29 the outcome of the investigation. The department shall mail 30 such a notice to the reporter within 10 days after completing 31 the child protective investigation.

1 Section 2. Subsection (4) of section 39.0132, Florida
2 Statutes, is amended to read:

3 39.0132 Oaths, records, and confidential
4 information.--

5 (4)(a)1. All information obtained pursuant to this 6 part in the discharge of official duty by any judge, employee 7 of the court, authorized agent of the department, correctional 8 probation officer, or law enforcement agent is confidential 9 and exempt from s. 119.07(1) and may not be disclosed to 10 anyone other than the authorized personnel of the court, the 11 department and its designees, correctional probation officers, 12 law enforcement agents, guardian ad litem, and others entitled 13 under this chapter to receive that information, except upon 14 order of the court.

15 2. Any information related to the best interests of a 16 child, as determined by a guardian ad litem, which is held by 17 a guardian ad litem, including but not limited to medical,
18 mental health, substance abuse, child care, education, law
19 enforcement, court, social services, and financial records;
20 and any other information maintained by a guardian ad litem
21 which is identified as confidential information under this 22 chapter; is confidential and exempt from s. 119.07(1) and s.
23 24(a), Art. I of the State Constitution. Such confidential and 24 exempt information may not be disclosed to anyone other than 25 the authorized personnel of the court, the department and its 26 designees, correctional probation officers, law enforcement
27 agents, guardians ad litem, and others entitled under this 28 chapter to receive that information, except upon order of the 29 court. This subparagraph is subject to the Open Government 30 Sunset Review Act of 1995 in accordance with s. 119.15, and 31

1 shall stand repealed on October 2, 2010, unless reviewed and 2 saved from repeal through reenactment by the Legislature.

3 (b) The department shall disclose to the school 4 superintendent the presence of any child in the care and 5 custody or under the jurisdiction or supervision of the 6 department who has a known history of criminal sexual behavior 7 with other juveniles; is an alleged juvenile sex offender, as 8 defined in s. 39.01; or has pled guilty or nolo contendere to,
9 or has been found to have committed, a violation of chapter 10 794, chapter 796, chapter 800, s. 827.071, or s. 847.0133,
11 regardless of adjudication. Any employee of a district school
12 board who knowingly and willfully discloses such information
13 to an unauthorized person commits a misdemeanor of the second 14 degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

15 Section 3. The Legislature finds that it is a public 16 necessity that information obtained by a guardian ad litem in 17 discharging duties with respect to proceedings relating to 18 children should be made confidential and exempt from 19 public-records requirements. The Legislature finds that the 20 information obtained by a guardian ad litem in ensuring the 21 care, safety, and protection of children is sensitive and 22 personal to the child and his or her family and that release
23 of this information could expose the child to harm or injure 24 the reputation of the child or the child's family. Providing 25 confidential and exempt status to the information obtained by 26 a guardian ad litem will facilitate the ability of the 27 guardian ad litem to represent the best interests of the child 28 in legal proceedings and thereby fulfill the purpose and 29 administration of the guardian ad litem program.

26 This subparagraph is subject to the Open Government Sunset 27 Review Act of 1995 in accordance with s. 119.15, and shall 30 7. An agency that is the custodian of the personal 31 information specified in subparagraph 1., subparagraph 2.,

1 | subparagraph 3., subparagraph 4., ~~or~~ subparagraph 5., or
2 | subparagraph 6., and that is not the employer of the officer,
3 | employee, justice, judge, or other person specified in
4 | subparagraph 1., subparagraph 2., subparagraph 3.,
5 | subparagraph 4., ~~or~~ subparagraph 5., or subparagraph 6., shall 6 | maintain the exempt status of the personal information only if
7 | the officer, employee, justice, judge, other person, or

10 | agency.

11 | Section 5. The Legislature finds that it is a public
12 | necessity that home addresses, telephone numbers, places of

14 | litem, and the names, home addresses, telephone numbers, and
15 | places of employment of the spouses and children of such
16 | persons, be made exempt from public-records requirements.
17 | Guardians ad litem provide a valuable service to the 18 | community. They interact with victims of child abuse and
19 | neglect and, at times, the perpetrators of that abuse or 20 | neglect. The capacity in which they work or volunteer their
21 | time does not always create good will. Different persons may
22 | be disgruntled with the testimony, report, or recommendation
23 | made by guardians ad litem. The testimony of guardians ad
24 | litem could create a safety risk. Thus, the guardians ad
25 | litem, or the spouses and children of guardians ad litem,
26 | could become a potential target for acts of revenge. If the 27 | information specified in this act remains available, the
28 | safety and welfare of guardians ad litem, and their spouses
29 | and children, could be seriously jeopardized. Accordingly, it
30 | is a public necessity that identifying and location
31 |

1 information of guardians ad litem, and their spouses and 2 children, be made exempt from public disclosure.

3 Section 6. This act shall take effect October 1, 2005.
