The Committee on Justice Appropriations (Argenziano) recommended the following amendment:

Senate Amendment (with title amendment)

On page 34, line 11, through page 35, line 28, delete those lines and insert: a graduated risk assessment that identifies, assesses, and closely monitors a high-risk offender who is placed on probation or in community control and who:

(a) Has previously been placed on probation or in community control and has a history of committing multiple violations of community supervision in this state or in any other jurisdiction or have previously been incarcerated in this state or in any other jurisdiction; and

(b) Has experienced more than one of the following risk factors that could potentially make the offender more likely to pose a danger to others:

- 1. History of domestic violence;
- 2. History of substance abuse;
- 3. Unemployment or substantial financial difficulties;

1 4. A history of violence or sex acts against children, 2 particularly involving strangers; or 3 5. Any other risk factor identified by the department.

4 (2) Recognizing that an offender having an extensive 5 criminal history and multiple risk factors may pose a serious 6 threat to the community, the department shall consider the 7 cumulative impact of these risk factors and, if necessary, 8 place an offender on a high level of supervision for the 9 offender until the situation stabilizes and the department no 10 longer believes that the offender poses a threat to others. In 11 providing such supervision, the department shall increase the 12 number of office and home visits conducted by the correctional 13 probation officer; expand the number of and type of 14 employment, family, community, and neighborhood contacts by 15 the correctional probation officer; increase voluntary 16 referrals to available community mental health facilities and 17 community assistance programs; develop emergency communication 18 plans for law enforcement agencies and the court in order to 19 quickly detain the offender in response to a violation; and 20 prioritize departmental resources in order to more closely 21 monitor the offender's activities in an effort to prevent 22 escalating criminal behavior.

23 (3) In providing criminal history and background 24 information to the court for these high-risk offenders, the 25 correctional probation officer shall provide in each report 26 submitted to the court and at each hearing before the court a 27 cumulative chronology of the offender's criminal history and 28 prior terms of state probation or community control, including 29 all substantive or technical violations of state probation or 30 community control. The
